

Contents

- Acknowledgements* ix
- On the Frontlines of Writing: Introducing the Literary Cold War 1
ANDREW HAMMOND
- 1 Anti-Communism on the American Stage 17
BRENDA MURPHY
- 2 Factography and Cold War Ideology in the Cuban Detective Novel 30
IGNACIO LÓPEZ-CALVO
- 3 Cross-Border Representation in South and North Korean Literatures of the Cold War Period 43
JOANNA ELFVING-HWANG
- 4 Endangered Nation: The Literature of Soviet-Occupied Afghanistan 58
WALI AHMADI
- 5 Hiroshima, or Peace in a 'City of Cruelty and Bitter Bad Faith': Japanese Poetry in the Cold War 72
ANN SHERIF
- 6 Reflections of the Cold War in Modern Persian Literature, 1945–1979 87
NASRIN RAHMIEH

viii Contents

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 7 | The 'Boom' Novel and the Cold War in Latin America | 100 |
| | NEIL LARSEN | |
| 8 | Contested Nationalisms and Socialisms: The Role of Theatre in Seeking Liberation for and between Ethiopia and Eritrea | 113 |
| | JANE PLASTOW | |
| 9 | 'With Friends Like These . . .': Soviet Travel Writing about Czechoslovakia during the Khrushchev Era | 128 |
| | MARGARITA MARINOVA | |
| 10 | Russian and American Satirists and the Exposure of Cold War Fictionalities | 141 |
| | DEREK C. MAUS | |
| 11 | Cold War Protest in East and West German Political Song | 156 |
| | DAVID ROBB | |
| 12 | Chinese Women's Autobiographical Practice in the Early Post-Mao Era | 171 |
| | LINGZHEN WANG | |
| 13 | A Corneillian Cold War: Mainstream French Political Drama of the 1950s | 184 |
| | JAMIE ANDREWS | |
| 14 | East-Central Europe and the Search for a Literature of the 'Third Way' | 199 |
| | MARCEL CORNIS-POPE | |
| | Works Cited | 213 |
| | Contributors | 235 |
| | Index | 239 |