

Contents

List of illustrations	vii
Notes on contributors	ix
Introduction	1
Stephen Gundle, Christopher Duggan and Giuliana Pieri
Part I THE ORIGINS OF A PERSONALITY CULT
1 Political cults in liberal Italy, 1861–1922	11
Christopher Duggan
2 The propagation of the cult of the Duce, 1925–26	27
Christopher Duggan
3 Margherita Sarfatti and the invention of the Duce	41
Simona Storchi
4 Sanity from a lunatic asylum: Ida Dalser's threat to Mussolini's image	57
Daniela Baratieri
5 Mass culture and the cult of personality	72
Stephen Gundle
Part II THE DUCE AND THE FASCIST REGIME
6 A town for the cult of the Duce: Predappio as a site of pilgrimage	93
Sofia Serenelli
7 Mussolini's appearances in the regions	110
Stephen Gundle
8 The internalisation of the cult of the Duce: the evidence of diaries and letters	129
Christopher Duggan
9 Mussolini and the Italian Empire, 1935–41	144
Giuseppe Finaldi

Part III THE ICONOGRAPHY OF THE DUCE

- 10 Portraits of the Duce 161
Giuliana Pieri
- 11 Photographing Mussolini 178
Alessandra Antola
- 12 Mussolini as monument: the equestrian statue of the Duce at the Littoriale Stadium in Bologna 193
Simona Storchi
- 13 Mussolini and the city of Rome 209
Eugene Pooley

Part IV AFTER THE FALL OF FASCISM

- 14 The destiny of the art and artefacts 227
Giuliana Pieri
- 15 The aftermath of the Mussolini cult: history, nostalgia and popular culture 241
Stephen Gundle
- 16 Mussolini and post-war Italian television 257
Vanessa Roghi
- Afterword 270
R.J.B. Bosworth
- Index* 278