

Contents

- Foreword: Venezuela's Bolivarian Democracy ix
Julia Buxton
- Introduction: Participation, Politics, and Culture—
Emerging Fragments of Venezuela's Bolivarian Democracy 1
David Smilde
- 1 Defying the Iron Law of Oligarchy I:
How Does "El Pueblo" Conceive Democracy? 28
Daniel Hellinger
- 2 Participatory Democracy in Venezuela:
Origins, Ideas, and Implementation 58
Margarita López Maya and Luis E. Lander
- 3 Urban Land Committees:
Co-optation, Autonomy, and Protagonism 80
María Pilar García-Guadilla
- 4 Catia Sees You: Community Television,
Clientelism, and the State in the Chávez Era 104
Naomi Schiller
- 5 Radio Bemba in an Age of Electronic Media:
The Dynamics of Popular Communication in Chávez's Venezuela 131
Sujatha Fernandes
- 6 "We Are Still Rebels":
The Challenge of Popular History in Bolivarian Venezuela 157
Alejandro Velasco
- 7 The Misiones of the Chávez Government 186
Kirk A. Hawkins, Guillermo Rosas, and Michael E. Johnson

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 8 | Defying the Iron Law of Oligarchy II: Debating Democracy Online in Venezuela | 219 |
| | Daniel Hellinger | |
| 9 | Venezuela's Telenovela: Polarization and Political Discourse in Cosita Rica | 244 |
| | Carolina Acosta-Alzuru | |
| 10 | The Color of Mobs: Racial Politics, Ethnopolitism, and Representation in the Chávez Era | 271 |
| | Luis Duno Gottberg | |
| 11 | Taking Possession of Public Discourse: Women and the Practice of Political Poetry in Venezuela | 298 |
| | Elizabeth Gackstetter Nichols | |
| 12 | Christianity and Politics in Venezuela's Bolivarian Democracy: Catholics, Evangelicals, and Political Polarization | 315 |
| | David Smilde and Coraly Pagan | |
| | Afterword: Chavismo and Venezuelan Democracy in a New Decade | 340 |
| | Daniel Hellinger | |
| | References | 343 |
| | Contributors | 369 |
| | Index | 373 |