

Contents

List of Tables	vii
Notes on Contributors	viii
Introduction – A New Paradigm for NATO? Ellen Hallams, Luca Ratti and Benjamin Zyla	1
Part I A New Paradigm for NATO?
1 NATO after 9/11: Theoretical Perspectives Mark Webber	27
2 Reflections on 9/11: A View from NATO Michael Rühle	54
3 A Sense of Return: NATO's Libyan Intervention in Perspective Carl Cavanagh Hodge	67
Part II The Transformation of NATO
4 'Déjà vu all over again'?: 11 September 2001 and NATO Military Transformation Terry Terriff	91
5 'Perennial Dilemmas': NATO's Post-9/11 Afghanistan 'Crisis' Tim Bird	118
6 Just an Internal Exercise? NATO and the 'New' Security Challenges Magnus Petersson	140
7 Fine Words, Few Answers: NATO's 'Not So New' New Strategic Concept Steve Marsh and Alan P. Dobson	155
8 Pooling, Sharing and Specializing – NATO and International Defence Cooperation Magnus Christiansson	178
9 A Model Intervention? Reflections on NATO's Libya 'Success' Jeffrey H. Michaels	198

Part III Old Issues, Expanding Partnerships, New Networks

10	Between Hope and Realism: The United States, NATO and a Transatlantic Bargain for the 21st Century Ellen Hallams	217
11	NATO and the EU: A Bipolar Alliance for a Multipolar World Sven Biscop	239
12	NATO–Russia Relations after 9/11: New Challenges, Old Issues Luca Ratti	258
13	NATO’s Global Partnerships – A Haphazard Strategy? Trine Flockhart	278
14	NATO and Interorganizational Cooperation Bastian Giegerich	297

Part IV Conclusion – NATO’s Retrenchment?

	Conclusion – 9/11: A Systemic or Paradigm Shift for NATO? Ellen Hallams, Luca Ratti and Benjamin Zyla	321
--	---	-----

	Index	332
--	--------------	-----