

Preface	vii
Introduction: Literature as History: From Early to Contemporary Times CHHANDA CHATTERJE	1
1. 'Historicality in Literature': A Case Study of the Classical Tamil Text, the Patirrupattu GANAPATHY SUBBIAH	17
2. Mystical and Eclectic Traditions as Reflected in Persian Sources of Medieval India AMIT DEY	27
3. Naturalization of the Nation and Nationalization of Nature: A Study of the Nationalist Literature of Bengal ANURADHA ROY	49
4. The Radical Rabindranath: 'The Red Oleanders (Rakta Karabi)' and Dreams of a New World CHHANDA CHATTERJEE	81
5. Reading Tagore's Letters from Russia in the Twenty-first Century SOBHANLAL DATTA GUPTA	95
6. The Evolution of Indian English Language and Literature: A Socio-Historical Survey SOMDATTA MANDAL	109
7. 'Tagore Syndrome': A Case Study of the West's Intercultural (Mis)readings IGOR GRBIĆ	139
8. The Politics and Poetics of Translating Indian Women's Fiction in English SWATI GANGULY	151
Notes on Editor and Contributors	165
Index	167