

CONTENTS

	Acknowledgements	ix
	Introduction: Ana Clavel and the Boom Femenino — Continuities and Queer Disruptions	i
1	‘Outlaw’ Sexualities and Desires in Ana Clavel’s Short Fiction	19
	Los deseos y su sombra
2	Truth, (Ghostly) Selves, and (Multimedia) Luminous Shadows	35
	Cuerpo naufrago
3	Gender Troubling, Queer Desires, and Fantastical (Dis)embodiments	59
4	Genre Troubling: Viscerality and Urinals as Textual and Visual Markers of Disruption	83
5	Beyond Text: Intermediality, Inter/Hypertextuality, and Proyecto multimedia	108
	Las Violetas son flores del deseo
6	Outer-Circle ‘Perversities’, Hyperreal Golema Dolls, and Textuality	140
7	Peritextuality and Reader-Spectator Complicities	164
8	Multitextuality: (Cyber) Art Installation, (Performing) Dolls, and (Multi)authorship	178
	El dibujante de sombras
9	The Queering of Truth and a Poetics of Shadows	208
10	Further Queer Literary and Multimedia Interventions	238
	Conclusion: Some Final Thoughts	251
	Bibliography	255
	Index	270