

CONTENTS

Notes on contributors—page vi
Acknowledgements—viii
List of abbreviations—ix

Introduction: understanding violence and the state
Matthew Sussex and Matt Killingsworth—1

- 1 War in the Revolutionary-Napoleonic Age: the French experience, 1792–1815 Gavin Daly 15
- 2 State violence and the eliticide in Poland, 1935–49 Jan Pakulski 40
- 3 State violence and China's unfinished national unification: conflict with minorities Terry Narramore 63
- 4 Instruments of state violence in hybridising regimes: the case of post-communist Russia Matthew Sussex 85
- 5 Crimea as a Eurasian pivot in 'Arc of Conflict': managing the great power relations trilemma Graeme P. Herd 107
- 6 Violence and the contestation of the state after civil wars Jasmine-Kim Westendorf 128
- 7 Humanitarian intervention and the moral dimension of violence Jannika Brostrom 155
- 8 Limiting the use of force: the ICTY, ICTR and ICC Matt Killingsworth 183

Conclusions: violence and the state – past, present and future
Matt Killingsworth, Matthew Sussex and Gavin Daly—205

Index—220