

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Introduction	1
1. Benares Beginnings: Print Modernity, Book Entrepreneurs, and Cross-Cultural Ventures in a Colonial Metropolis Ulrike Stark	15
2. At Home in Bombay: Housing Konkani Print Rochelle Pinto	74
3. Six Blind Men and the Elephant: Bhagavata Purana in Colonial Bengal Varuni Bhatia	110
4. Childspeak: Children's Periodicals in Hindi in Colonial North India (1920–50) Nandini Chandra	140
5. Bangla Literary Journalism at Nationalism's 'Moment of Departure': The Intervention of Bangadarsan Samarpita Mitra	173
6. On the Wrong End of the Raj: Some Aspects of Censorship in British India and its Circumvention during 1920s–1940s—Part 2 Graham Shaw	222
7. Educational Texts in Bengal, 1830–1900: Some Problems Relating to British Imports Swapan Chakravorty	317

8. What Really Happened under a Tree outside Delhi, May 1817	334
Abhijit Gupta
Notes on the Contributors	353
Index	355