

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
The Protagonists	xi
Introduction	i

PART ONE: RUN-UP TO NUREMBERG

- |  |    |
|--|----|
| 1 The Holocaust: How Was This Genocide Different fromAll the Rest? | 9  |
| 2 The Gathering at Ashcan  | 22 |

PART TWO: NUREMBERG

- |   |    |
|---|----|
| 3 The War Crimes Trial: What Do We Do with the Criminals? | 37 |
| 4 War Criminals with Psychiatrists and Psychologists?     | 51 |

PART THREE: FACES OF MALICE

- |                                     |    |
|-------------------------------------|----|
| 5 Defendant Robert Ley: "Bad Brain" | 71 |
|-------------------------------------|----|

- 6 Defendant Hermann Göring: “Amiable Psychopath” 85
- 7 Defendant Julius Streicher: “Bad Man” 102
- 8 Defendant Rudolf Hess: “So Plainly Mad” 114

PART FOUR: CODA TO NUREMBERG: RORSCHACHS AND RECRIMINATIONS

- 9 Douglas Kelley and Gustave Gilbert: A Collaboration from Hell 139
- 10 A Message in the Rorschachs? 155
- 11 Malice on a Continuum: The Social Psychologists’ Perspective 167
- 12 Malice as Categorically Different: Encounters with “the Other” 182
- Conclusion 198

Notes 205

Acknowledgments 233

Index 235