

Contents

| | |
|------------------|-------|
| Acknowledgements | |
| Contributors | |
| Foreword | i |
| Introduction | v |
| Map | xxiii |

Section 1

| | |
|--|----|
| Household Words and the 'Community of Print' in the 1850s Joanne Shattock | 1 |
| Second Life: All the Year Round and the New Generation of British Periodicals in the 1860s Laurel Brake | 11 |
| A 'Hopeful Congeniality' between Mr Whelks and the Duchess? Household Words in a Journalistic Context Louis James | 35 |
| 'Serviceable Friends': The Two Supplements to Household Words Koenraad Claes | 55 |

Section 2

| | |
|--|----|
| 'Probing' the Workhouse in All the Year Round Laura Foster | 71 |
| Organicism and Francomania in Dickens's Journalism Ignacio Ramos Gay | 81 |
| Detecting Disease in London's Underworld: Household Words and the Campaign for Sanitary Reform Clare Horrocks | 95 |

The Perils of Sociability: Dickens, Victorian Journalism and the Detective Police
John Tulloch 107

From 'The Great Exhibition to the Little One' to 'China with a Flaw in It': China, Commodities and Conflict in Household Words
Hannah Lewis-Bill 123

Section 3

A Defence of the Pen: The Figure of the Author Drawn by Household Words
Helen Mckenzie 135

'Literary Adventurers': Editorship, Non-Fiction Authorship and Anonymity
Jasper Schelstraete 147

The Philip Collins Memorial Lecture
'Hunted and Harried by Pseudo-Philanthropists': Dickens, Martineau and Household Words
Iain Crawford 157

The Household Words Journalist as Ethnographer: G. A. Sala's 'Phases of "Public" Life'
Catherine Waters 175

Morley was alive: to begin with. The Curious Case of Dickens and his Principal Household Wordsmith
Daragh Downes 185

Champagne, All the Year Round and Henry Vizetelly
David Parker 201

Unfamiliar in their Mouths: The Possible Contributions of Fitz-James O'Brien to Household Words
Pete Orford 211

Section 4

| | |
|---|-----|
| 'A Glimpse of Passing Faces': Dickens, the Streets and the Press Judith Flanders | 235 |
| Household Words and the Crimean War: Journalism, Fiction and Forms of Recuperation in Wartime Holly Furneaux | 245 |
| Our Hour: Dickens's Shifting Authorial Personae Paul Schlicke | 261 |
| The One and the Many Robert L. Patten | 277 |
| Our Island's Story: Dickens's Search for a National Identity David Paroissien | 297 |
| How the Dickens Scandal Went Viral Patrick Leary | 305 |
| Index | 326 |