

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Contributors	xi
Introduction	1
Rosemarijn Hoefte and Peter Meel
1. Departing from Java to Lampung: Locating Javanese Diasporic Practices in Indonesia's Transmigration Resettlement Programme	27
Rebecca Elmhirst
2. A Shared Sense of Belonging: The Javanese in Southeast Sulawesi	54
Agus Suwignyo and Widaratih Kamiso
3. The Javanese of New Caledonia	82
Pamela Allen
4. Javanese in Malaysia: Labour Migration, Settlement and Diaspora	103
Amarjit Kaur
5. Migration Systems and Identity: Javanese Domestic Workers in Hong Kong and Singapore	137
Wayne Palmer
6. 'No to Racial Discrimination': Javanese Guest Workers' Experiences of Racism in Taiwan and their Stratagems of Resistance	160
Robert Tierney
7. From Java to Saudi Arabia and Dubai: Precarious Itineraries of Indonesian Domestic Workers	188
Rachel Silvey
8. East Javanese Housemaids in Saudi Arabia, 1990s–2010s: Transnational Labour Migration, Survival, Social Networks and Identity	209
Nurchayati
9. Javanese in Suriname: Between Multi-ethnicity and Nationalism	238
Peter Meel
Index	267

Tables

2.1. Patterns of the Javanese resettlement programmes, 1900–2013	60
2.2. Farming tools sent to the Javanese migrants in Sulawesi, 1938	64
3.1. Javanese employment in New Caledonia, 29 November 1943	86
4.1. Population growth in Southeast Asia, 1890–1940	107
4.2. Malaya: Statistical and associated information relating to Malay and ‘Other Malaysian’ categories, as enumerated in the 1947 census	115
4.3. Peninsular Malaysia – distribution of population by race, 1911–1957	116
4.4. Indonesia – labour emigration to West Asia and Southeast Asia under the National Development Plans, 1969–1994	124
4.5. Malaysia – protocols on the country of origin of foreign workers in designated sectors, 2006/2008	128
4.6. Malaysia – migrant workers by nationality and sector, November 2007	130

Maps

4.1. Southeast Asia – colonial states and boundaries	106
4.2. Malaysia – political divisions/states	110

Figures

2.1. A resettlement area in Konawe Selatan, c. 1939	62
2.2. Newly built houses for Javanese migrants in Pondidaha, c. 1988	65
2.3. A transit house	69
2.4. Lining up for food in the transit house	70
2.5. Mr. Supandi, a religious teacher under the Pengerahan Tenaga Sukarela Programme, and his wife, photographed in their home in Tanea	73
6.1. Number of undocumented migrants as a proportion of aggregate documented migrants by nationality in selected years, 2003, 2009 and 2016	164

CONTENTS

6.2. Protest against the forced eating of pork, 24 October 2010	173
6.3. Indonesians entertaining one another, 24 October 2010	176
6.4. Indonesians dancing in traditional dress, Hsinchu Migrant Shelter, June 2013	177
6.5. Caregivers dancing in quasi-traditional dress, Taipei, May 2006	178
6.6. Indonesian dance performers at a social function in Hsinchu, organised by IPIT, c. 2014	179
6.7. Migrants from the Philippines and Indonesia, formation dancing at the anti-Philippine ban protest	180