

Contents

Series Note	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction: Military Chaplaincy in Comparative Perspective Torkel Brekke	1
1. Religious Teachers in the Indian Army Torkel Brekke	15
2. Religious Plurality and the Slovenian Military Chaplaincy Gorazd Andrejč and George R. Wilkes	39
3. Paths Untrodden in Japanese Buddhist Chaplaincy to the Imperial Military Micah Auerback	62
4. 'Operation Dhamma': The Sri Lankan Armed Forces as an Instrument of Buddhist Nationalism Iselin Frydenlund	81
5. Military Rabbis as Community Builders: The Israeli Case Ori Goldberg	104
6. The Divine Is in the Details: Managing Religion in Pluralizing Militaries Kim Philip Hansen	123

7.	Pluralistic Permutations: The Thai Buddhist Military Chaplaincy	145
	Michael Jerryson
8.	From Confessional to Concessional: The Adaptation to Religious Pluralism by the Chaplaincy of the Norwegian Armed Forces	162
	Bård Mæland and Nils Terje Lunde
9.	Religion in the Sepoy Army of British India	185
	Kaushik Roy
10.	Twilight of the Padres: The End of British Military Chaplaincy in India	202
	Michael Snape
11.	South Korean Military Chaplaincy in the 1950–70s: Religion as Ideology?	228
	Vladimir Tikhonov
	About the Editors and Contributors	259
	Index	262