Strategic Development of the BMW Foundation Herbert Quandt

We are pleased to announce that together with our new Board of Directors, a newly established leadership will shape the transformation of the BMW Foundation Herbert Quandt.

This team includes Esben Ehrenreich (VP Communication & Narratives), Arlene Hoffmann-Singh (VP Legal & Finance), Sabine Kuschel (VP Programs, Knowledge & Inspiration), Paula Quintas (VP Collective Intelligence & Network Strategy), and Dr. Bryan Scheler (VP Strategy & Impact). The BMW Foundation team is based at the Foundation's locations in Berlin and Munich with its respective staff of experts and professionals.

Looking ahead, we are thrilled to collaborate with leaders in business, policy, and civil society, along with our partners and the dedicated members of our global Responsible Leaders Network. Together, we aim to pave the way for innovative economies and resilient societies.

We recognize the further development of economic systems as a crucial driver of transformation. Strong economies are essential in fostering social cohesion and functioning democracies that secure a prosperous future for all individuals.

At the core of our endeavors lies the principle of Responsible Leadership, which guides our actions and decisions. We firmly believe that societies can only become fairer and more inclusive when those in positions of power understand and fulfill their responsibilities.
