

Bio of Ambassador Marko Bello for CAA

Ambassador Marko Bello is one of the founding members of the Council of Albanian Ambassadors and a respected public figure in Albanian diplomatic and political circles.

His early diplomatic career begins in 1987 as secretary of the Albanian Embassy to Romania and later for the department of Press in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs Albania.

From 1997-2000, he served as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Albania to Romania.

Ambassador Bello was elected as Member of Parliament for 3 mandates from 2001-2013 chairing several committees including the one for Foreign Policy and held several government posts as State Minister for Government Coordination State Minister for European Integration Deputy Minister of Defense of Albania.

He is a graduate of the Faculty of History and Philology, French Language Department, Tirana State and has attended numerous training and academic programs on Security and Fighting against Terrorism, Marshall Center, Garmisch, Germany and Executive Program of School of Government "John Kennedy", Harvard University, Boston, Massachusetts – USA.

He also holds the title of Doctor of Juridical Sciences and International Relations (P.H.D) at the Faculty of Justice "Nicolae Titulescu", State University of Craiova, Romania

Ambassador Marko Bello was correspondent of Reuters News Agency Correspondent of Reuters in Bucharest

Author of „Institutional European Community Law“ , a book edited by Morava, Tirana 2010; „International Treaty“, as well as of several articles and analysis on the economic and political situation in Albania and in the Balkans region.

Foreign Languages: French, English, Romanian and Italian.