

Before using Apple Watch, review the Apple Watch User Guide at support.apple.com/guide/watch. You can also use Apple Books to download the guide (where available). Retain documentation for future reference.

Safety and Handling

See "Safety and handling" in the Apple Watch User Guide. Apple Watch, its operating systems, and the health sensors are not medical devices.

Exposure to Radio Frequency

For radio frequency exposure information for Apple Watch, open the Apple Watch app on iPhone and tap My Watch, then go to General > About > Legal > RF Exposure. Or go to apple.com/legal/rfexposure.

Battery and Charging

The lithium-ion battery in Apple Watch should be serviced or recycled by Apple or an authorized service provider. You may receive a replacement Apple Watch when ordering battery service. Batteries must be recycled or disposed of separately from household waste. For information about battery service and recycling, go to apple.com/batteries/service-and-recycling. For information about charging, see "Important safety information" in the Apple Watch User Guide.

Medical Device Interference

Apple Watch, some of the bands, and Apple Watch magnetic charging accessories contain magnets that may interfere with medical devices. See "Important safety information" in the Apple Watch User Guide.

Avoid Hearing Damage

To prevent possible hearing damage, do not listen at high volume levels for long periods. More information about sound and hearing is available online at apple.com/sound and in "Important safety information" in the Apple Watch User Guide.

Apple One-Year Limited Warranty Summary

Apple warrants the included hardware product and accessories against defects in materials and workmanship for one year from the date of original retail purchase. Apple does not warrant against normal wear and tear, nor damage caused by accident or abuse. To obtain service, call Apple or visit an Apple Store or an Apple Authorized Service Provider—available service options are dependent on the country in which service is requested and may be restricted to the original country of sale. Call charges and international shipping charges may apply, depending on the location. Subject to the full terms and detailed information on obtaining service available at apple.com/legal/warranty and support.apple.com, if you submit a valid claim under this warranty, Apple will either repair, replace, or refund your Apple Watch at its own discretion. Warranty benefits are in addition to rights provided under local consumer laws. You may be required to furnish proof of purchase details when making a claim under this warranty.

For Australian Consumers: Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and for compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure. Apple Pty Ltd, PO Box A2629, Sydney South, NSW 1235. Tel: 133-622.
