

DIA Film & Photography Policies

Updated: October 2024

Wedding and Engagement Photography

- Wedding and engagement photography is allowed for free outside the museum, as long as it doesn't disturb visitor access. Please be considerate of others.
- No wedding or engagement photography is permitted inside the building unless associated with an event rental. Please email catering@dia.org if you are interested in hosting your wedding or other event at the DIA.

Personal Photography

- Selfies are encouraged! Feel free to share them on social media, but please don't disrupt other visitors.
- Flash photography is not allowed. No selfie sticks or tripods.
- Celebrations and impromptu gatherings can disrupt others and endanger artworks. These are not allowed.
- Some exhibitions may restrict personal photography. Please check before taking photos.

Press, News, and Media Photo / Film Policy

- Media members must obtain permission from the Marketing & Communications Department before filming inside the DIA. Please email pr@dia.org
- All video and photography shoots need approval and scheduling in advance. Media may take exterior photos anytime.

Student Film Shoots / Personal Projects

- Student films and/or personal projects are not allowed in the museum.

DIA Artwork

- To use DIA artwork images for commercial or editorial projects, or personal uses, go to Rights & Reproduction for guidelines and permissions, or email rightsrepo@dia.org.
