

Simplify global device deployments

Easily stock and deploy devices on your schedule

Stock Express enables streamlined device deployments that support hybrid, remote, and fluctuating workforces. With the ability to stock customized devices globally and adjust inventory as needed, supporting your organization's device deployment needs has never been easier.

With flexible and global device stocking for up to 90 days, Stock Express helps simplify the complexity and increase the predictability of device deployments and order cycle times.

Your units will be stocked for future deployment, and HP can custom-configure your devices with images, BIOS settings, asset tags, and software.

Then ready-to-go devices will be shipped on your schedule to your employees' homes¹ or offices.

STOCK DEVICES USING HP FACILITIES AND DEPLOY GLOBALLY

No need to stock onsite or to facilitate moving stock from one location to another. HP will handle it for you.

ADJUST INVENTORY AS REQUIRED TO MEET BUSINESS NEEDS

HP will stock devices based on your forecast. You can change stocking levels as needed.

SUPPORT HYBRID EMPLOYEES AND WORKFORCE FLUCTUATIONS
