Low lying zeros in families related to CM elliptic curves

Lucile Devin[1]

[1] (Université du Littoral Côte d'Opale)

Abstract: In a joint work with Chantal David and Ezra Waxman, we study the low-lying zeros of two families of L-functions related to a CM elliptic curve. In the power aspect, we find out that the family breaks down into two subfamilies of different symmetry types: orthogonal and symplectic.