

the spotlight: what to buy now

AN EDIT OF THE BEAUTIES ON TEAM LIVINGETC'S SHOPPING LIST

ON EDGE

We're utterly in love with this sofa, designed by Jonas Wagell for L.Ercolani. Balanced on a slim-profile, angular base that seems to defy the laws of physics, with a smooth but subtle curve to the arms, it's an elegant, sophisticated and eye-catching piece – and one we're itching to have in our living rooms. Grade three-seater sofa, from £6,650, L.Ercolani

THROWING SHADE

We're delighted that Pooky and GP & J Baker have launched a capsule lampshade collection. It draws on the latter's fabric designs, pairing them with Pooky's creative take on homeware. Our favourite? Polka Dot, a small-scale pattern of painterly spots. From £36, Pooky

MIAMI NICE

There's been a brilliant reaction to the brand-new Miami collection from British bespoke furniture brand Hyde House, officially debuted at Decorex in October, and we're not surprised – it's peppy, playful and super fun. The bobbin-inspired, pastel-toned mirror is a perfect way to introduce a little whimsy into your scheme. Miami designs start from £1,995, Hyde House

GAME-CHANGER

We didn't know we needed a marble and onyx tic-tac-toe set until we saw this one, designed by Agata Knorowska for The Edition Ninety Four and crafted in her Warsaw atelier. Carved from stone, of course, each piece is unique – winning a game on one of these would feel even sweeter than usual, we reckon. £695, The Edition Ninety Four

FEATURE ELLEN FINCH

NEW ICONS

Danish design brand Fredericia is no stranger to iconic furniture – in its time, it has introduced collaborations from leading designers including Hans J Wegner and Space Copenhagen. This year, it has reintroduced Børge Mogensen's J39 chair in two new colourways, dark blue and vintage red, to refresh this classic for a new generation – and we love the striking accent these designs bring to a space. J39 chairs, €499.20 each, Fredericia

ALL AGLOW

If you haven't yet seen Porta Romana's AW collection, we implore you to head over to the website. We were drawn to the minimalist-style Esme wall light, inspired by a decorative earring and shaped organically from cast composite. Available in any custom finish. £1,320, Porta Romana

JUTE BEAUT

Brighten up your floor with Evelina Kroon's four-piece collection for Layered. The Late Breakfast range takes the Scandinavian artist's signature graphic lines and applies them to jute, a rug material also often neglected when it comes to pattern and colour. Plum Punch rug, from €690, Layered

FIGHTING TALK

Inspired by those who have fought against obstacles across millennia, Warrior – the first furniture and lighting collection by up-and-coming studio Ōza – presents staple pieces in a new light. Dynamic forms and a strong palette of cast bronze, timber and linen make this a standout debut. Enyo coffee table, price on request, Ōza