SAVILLS APPOINTS NEW STATE MD FOR ITS SOUTH AUSTRALIA BUSINESS

Savills Australia and New Zealand has appointed Matt Holland to lead its South Australia business in the role of State Managing Director – SA, based in the global real estate agency's Adelaide office.

Mr Holland brings with him over 25 years' experience in the property industry with detailed knowledge of, and expertise in, a wide range of disciplines including project delivery, property management, asset management, valuation, sales and leasing and property development.

Most recently, Mr Holland was State Property Manager – SANT at Woolworths Group, a role he held over two decades, before which he had spent seven years with CBRE as an executive in retail sales and leasing.

Paul Craig, Chief Executive Officer at Savills Australia and New Zealand said "We welcome Matt to the Savills Australia and New Zealand team as a new chapter of our South Australia business starts under his guidance.

"Matt's deep experience in the property industry, the strengths of his relationships and his team-leading expertise will be instrumental in the growth of our South Australian business and the talent in our Adelaide office."

Speaking on his appointment, Matt Holland said "I'm excited to join Savills, with its reputation for being a highly respected global real estate brand working across such diverse services in so many sectors of the property industry in Australia and New Zealand.

"I look forward to working with the team in Adelaide, our clients, my peers and colleagues as we build upon the strength of the Savills South Australian business."

Mr Holland begins in the role on 29 April.
