

Photograph of the week: Cemagi Beach in Bali, Indonesia

By Paul Johnson on Apr 13, 2016 in Asia, Indonesia, Regions

This stunning birds-eye view of Cemagi Beach in south-west Bali shows the waves rolling in from the Indian Ocean and the Balinese Hindu temple Pura Gede Luhur Batungaus dramatically set on a rocky outcrop. Steps away from the sands, a handful of luxury villas have sea views on one side and a panorama of vivid rice terraces on the other. Surrounded by so much natural beauty, Cemagi Beach is a truly special place to be.
