For a tranquil Indonesian escape, meet the highly praised Anandita Villa.

Published December 2017

Have you ever dreamt of running with complete abandon through a vast grassy expanse of lawn? In particular, one that is dotted with coconut palms and laced with frangipani and bougainvillea? If so, it could be that the Elite Havens renowned Anandita Villa has infiltrated your dreams! This grassy Lombok coconut grove is adjoined to the white sanded Sira Beach, making it the most heavenly backdrop for a luxe spa retreat.

Rest, relax and stay awhile.

Scattered about the coconut grove are 4 stand-alone luxury guest villas. By all means, hats off to the designers of these villas and their en-suite bathrooms! Each is spacious and decorated with natural materials. The use of brightly colored accents are contrasted by soft white linens. Gorgeous natural wood flooring, ceiling and trimmings blend gracefully with nature's design themes. Draw back the curtains and let the large sliding glass doors reveal their views. Furthermore, the bathrooms are as lavish as ever. Each one looks as though it is a spa salon, exuding the tranquility of the serene tropical outdoor surroundings that they're exposed to. Moreover, all guest suites have been appointed with everything possible to make for a well-pampered stay.

For a tranquil Indonesian escape, meet the highly praised Anandita Villa. This Lombok vacation rental is beach-blessed and super spacious.

Your home away from home Lombok vacation rental

In the center of the guest villas is a “living pavilion.” This is a common area which includes a kitchen, large dining room, seriously large living room and a bar. The living area is made up of several plush couches, a TV, pool table, games and books. Wide, folding glass doors lead to the pool deck with sun loungers and a gigantic pool. Here, you can listen to the sound of the birds and the waves rolling onto the beach.

Whether you’re in one of the guest villas or the common areas, you’ll find all of the structures to be very elegant, spacious and open with high ceilings. You can enjoy the company of other guests in the common areas, but also bask in the privacy that each guest suite offers.

Meals are served whenever, wherever.

The food scene at this Lombok vacation rental must also be praised. Included in the cost of your stay is breakfast, lunch, dinner, afternoon tea, beverages and snacks. A wide selection of both Western and Asian dishes are offered. Along with mouthwatering meals, they serve a variety of home-baked bread and pastries, fresh juices, cocktails, tea and coffee. Special dietary needs can be accommodated.

Another winning feature is that the staff will arrange special dinners at various locations around the property. A beautiful sunset beach barbeque was a highlight of my stay. They must have spent hours preparing the elaborate setup. Furthermore, a special vegetarian dish was made for me with vegetable curry cooked inside of banana leaves and a side of grilled tempeh and tofu. On another occasion, they served up a delicious version of my favorite Indonesian meal, Gado Gado. Our private chef was top notch. In fact, all of his culinary creations were perfect.

Charming and experienced staff

This 4 bedroom Lombok vacation rental can be booked through Elite Havens. The amazing staff at both Elite Havens and the Anandita Villa make this property stand out from other Indonesian vacation rentals. I found them to be very professional and aimed to please. The Villa Manager was warm and accommodating. He assists guests with everything from setting up transportation to getting you set for the activities of your choosing. The staff will even prepare a picnic lunch for you to take on your outings, should you request one.

Lombok, Bali's beautiful next door neighbor

Lombok is an Indonesian island just east of Bali. It's known for its beaches, surfing, diving and snorkeling. However, so many other adventures await. On the grounds of Anandita Villa itself, there is a beautiful sandy beach, daily volleyball games, kayaking, ping pong tables, private cabanas, and a giant pool. Additionally, there is a spa hut which is the perfect place for a massage.

For more adventures outside of the Anandita Villa's grounds, guests can:

- Take a private glass bottom boat ride to the nearby Gili Islands
- Enjoy a tour around Lombok
- Go cycling or take a trip to the nearby zoo
- Golf at the neighboring 18 hole championship golf course (open to the public)
- Visit local museums or shop at the market village
- Visit the Lombok elephant park
- Hike to waterfalls or through forests
- Visit a Sasak tribal village to learn about their culture

The Anandita Villa experience in summary

This Lombok vacation rental will make for an amazing retreat for the family or a group of friends who love traveling together. The entire villa accommodates 8 adults (4 king-bedded suites) and six children on day beds. Extra beds can also be made available if you have more guests in your party. The villa is also the ideal destination for weddings and other special events.

With private access to the white-sand beach and 20 experienced staff members on hand, you are bound to enjoy your stay at the palm-fringed Anandita Villa.
