A serene outdoor poolside scene at Villa Mana in Canggu, Bali. The image features a large, dark stone building with a thatched roof on the left, partially obscured by lush greenery. A long, narrow swimming pool with clear blue water runs through the center. In the foreground, a modern lounge chair with light-colored cushions and a rolled-up towel sits on a wooden deck. In the background, a hammock is strung between trees, and another lounge chair is visible near the pool. The sky is bright blue with some clouds.
