NOTING THE DEACS

KICKING IT OFF

- With their win against Boston College in week eight 2022, the Demon Deacons extended the conference's second-longest bowl streak to seven-consecutive seasons. This is also the 11th longest streak in the country.
 - On Oct. 23 when Associated Press Top 25 Poll came out, the Deacons were ranked inside the top 15 for the eighth time in the past calendar year. Prior to that run, Wake Forest had only been ranked that high just three times since 1950. The Deacs latest top 15-ranking came after their third-straight win over Florida State. That victory was our first in Tallahassee since 2008 and was Wake Forest's sixth win over a ranked opponent in the last seven years.
 - Additionally the Demon Deacons were ranked in 22-consecutive polls from Sept. 24, 2021 and ending on Nov. 6, 2022. It was tied for the sixth-longest streak in the country and more than doubling the previous program record of eight-consecutive weeks.
 - Since the start of the 2016 season, the Deacs have the second-most wins in the ACC not counting the COVID-shortened 2020 season. Additionally over 2018-22, the Deacs have recorded the second-most wins in a single five-year period in program history, 37. The current five-year period of 2019-23 ranks fifth in program history with 34 wins.
- Under Dave Clawson, Wake Forest has set a new standard of success that includes qualifying for its program record seventh-straight bowl game. He also owns the school record with five bowl victories.
 - Additionally, his five bowl wins are tied for the fifth-most Bowl/CFP victories in ACC history and with one more he would move into the top three in league history.
 - The five Bowl/CFP Victories are also the second most among active ACC coaches.
- Since the start of the 2021 season, Wake Forest has claimed 22 victories. Additionally, Wake Forest's 22-8 record is the eighth-best mark in all of Power-5 in the last three seasons:

 2. Michigan (28-3)
 3. Alabama (26-5)

PACE AND SPACE OFFENSE

- From 2017-22, Wake Forest has produced the five highest scoring seasons in school history with each club scoring better. With Nick Sciba's third quarter field goal against Clemson in 2021, the Deacs broke its all-time scoring record for a single season with 474 combined points in 11 games, besting the previous record of 459 points set in 2017, finishing the season with 574 points. They also set the school record with 41.0 points per game in 2021.
- Wake Forest became just the 20th ACC team in the college football modern era (Post-WWII) to cross over the milestone of 500 points scored in a single season. The Deacs finished seventh in ACC scoring history:

588 - Clemson (2016)
580 - Pitt (2021)
577 - Clemson (2015)
574 - Wake Forest (2021)

- Over 2021-22, Wake Forest was one of just nine teams in the country to score over 1,000 points combined. Additionally, the Deacs lead the ACC in scoring by 2.8 points per game from 2021-2023 while ranking seventh nationally in points per game during that period:
 1. Ohio State - 44.5 PPG
 2. Tennessee - 41.6 PPG
 3. Georgia - 39.8 PPG
 4. Western Kentucky - 39.7 PPG
 5. Alabama - 39.6 PPG
 6. UCLA - 38.2
 7. Wake Forest - 38.1 PPG

 - 12 - Florida State (1992-03)
 - 10 - Clemson (2011-20)
 - 8 - Florida State (2008-16)
 - 6 - Wake Forest (2017-22)

 - Wake Forest's 90 touchdown passes from 2021-23 ranks third nationally in that time period and is 22 more than any other ACC team (North Carolina, 68).

Elite Passing Offense

- A key to the Deacs scoring success has been the numbers that they have put up through the air in the last three seasons. Wake Forest is one of eight schools to throw for more than 9,000 yards in that time and more than 500 yards more than any other ACC team:

Teams	GP	Passing Yds
1 WKU	31	11,859
2 Ohio State	29	9,784
3 USC	29	9,463
4 Miss. State	29	9,460
5 Purdue	29	9,348
6 Alabama	31	9,321
7 Wake Forest	30	9,125

 - Additionally, the Demon Deacons have found the endzone through the air 22 more times than any other ACC team since the start of the 2021 season and their 90 passing touchdowns are tied for third most in the country:

Teams	GP	Passing TDs
1 WKU	31	114
2 Ohio State	29	95
T3 Wake Forest	30	90
T3 Alabama	30	90
5 SMU	28	86
 - The program-record 43 passing touchdowns as a team during the 2022 season was the most in the country. Additionally, the Demon Deacon receiving core had its best season in program history as five players finished with over 500 receiving yards (Wake Forest is the only team in the country to return four or more 500-plus receivers) and had three players catch nine or more touchdown passes, with all three ranking in the top six in program history in that category (AT Perry - 11; Jahmal Bank - 9; Taylor Morin - 9).
 - Both of these helped propel the Demon Deacons to the highest-scoring offense in the ACC in 2022:

NOTING THE DEACS

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

- With record setting crowds, multiple sellouts and the best student attendance in school history, playing at home over past three seasons has given Wake Forest a huge edge. The Demon Deacons hold a 22-4 (.846) record in home contests since the start of the 2019 season which included a program-record 11-game winning streak spanning from the 2020 to 2022 seasons. The 84.6 percent win rate ranks second in the ACC during that time period:

Rank	School	Wins	Losses	Pct.
1	Clemson	27	1	96.4
2	Wake	22	4	84.6
3	NC State	23	6	79.3
T4	N Carolina	19	8	70.4
5	Louisville	18	8	69.2
6	Virginia	18	9	66.7
7	Pittsburgh	19	10	65.5
8	Miami	18	10	64.3
9	Florida St	17	10	63.0

WINNING THE CLOSE ONES

- During the midst of the program-record seven-year bowl streak, the Demon Deacons have found a winning formula in one-score ball games, capturing three or more wins by one score in five of those seasons with a total of 20 wins in 34 such games. The Deacs hold the second-best winning percentage in those games since 2016 in the ACC:

Rank	School	Wins	Losses	Pct.
1	Clemson	21	6	77.8
2	Wake	20	14	58.8
3	NC State	19	15	55.9
4	FSU	19	16	54.3
5	GT	15	14	51.7

LIMITING PENALTIES

- Another key part of the Demon Deacons success during the seven-year bowl eligible streak has been the fact that they have had a low number of penalties over those seven years.
- The 2022 season was no different as Wake Forest ranked in the top 20 nationally in fewest penalties, fewest penalties per game and penalty yards per game. The Deacs lead the ACC in all three categories and ranks in the top seven in the Power-5 in each category:

Team	Penalties	Pen. Yds	Yds/G
1 Michigan	58	448	32.00
2 Minnesota	46	31.77
3 Oklahoma St.	46	436	33.54
4 Iowa	53	425	32.69
5 Kentucky	74	514	39.54
6 Utah	63	563	40.21

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

- In five of the last seven seasons, the Demon Deacons have finished inside of the top 25 in turnover margin while placing in the top three of ACC in each of those seasons.
- Over the course of 2020-22, Wake Forest was +1 or better in turnover margin in 53 percent of games which ranked ninth nationally and fifth in the Power-5.
- Going into week three, the Demon Deacons lead the ACC and rank 13th nationally with a +3 turnover margin. The Demon Deacons have forced multiple turnovers in the first two weeks.
- Over the past eight seasons, Wake Forest has a combined +39 turnover margin. Only 2018 and 2022 saw the Deacs finish with more turnovers lost than gained:

Season	TO Gained	TO Lost	TO Margin
2023	7	5	+2
2022	16	19	-3*
2021	29	20	+9
2020	17	7	+10
2019	25	17	+8
2018	16	19	-3*
2017	21	13	+8
2016	27	19	+8

*Only seasons in Wake Forest history where the Deacs reached a bowl game with a negative turnover margin.

- Winning the turnover battle has been a key to victory for the Demon Deacons since Dave Clawson arrived on campus ahead of the 2014 season:

Turnover Margin	Record When
Even	13-11

+1 or better	41-10
+2 or better	24-3
+3 or better	11-0

TURNING OVER THE OPPOSITION

- In the 2019 season, the Demon Deacons finished the year with 14 interceptions by 10 different players. In nine games in 2020, Wake Forest nearly matched that mark as nine different players have accounted for the Deacs' 13 total interceptions. At the end of the 2020 FBS season, Wake Forest is the one of just six teams in the country to have three or more interceptions returned for touchdowns.
- The Deacs got off to a fast start in 2021, forcing six turnovers in their week three victory over Florida State (three fumbles and three interceptions), the most in the Dave Clawson era. The previous high was five at Indiana on Sept. 24, 2016. Additionally, the Deacs again ranked among the best in forced turnovers:

HANGING WITH IVAN

• Since taking over full-time punting duties at the start of the 2020 season, Ivan Mora has been one of the best punters in the ACC. In 2022, he was tied for the smallest percentage of punts returned in the conference as just 15 percent of punts were returned.

CALCULATED RISK TAKER™

• Entering his fourth year in the system, Mitch Griffis is taking over as the full-time starter at quarterback. Last season, he showed what he could do as a starter during the VMI game:

• His 72.4 percent in a first career start is the second-best in school history and the best mark since 2006.

• His three touchdown passes against VMI are the second most by a Wake Forest quarterback in his first career start.

• Ahead of the 2023 season, Griffis was named to the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award Watch List. Of the 48 quarterbacks on the list, Griffis is one of just two four to grace the preseason watch list.

When Dave Clawson was named Wake Forest University's 32nd head football coach on Dec. 10, 2013, he set out to build the top program in North Carolina and compete for championships.

After reaching a program record seven-straight bowl game in 2022 and capturing the 2021 ACC Atlantic title and winning the Deacs' eighth Big 4 Championship in 2019, Clawson is realizing the vision of what he set out to create.

Clawson has also engineered an offense that has rewritten the record books at Wake Forest. The Deacons have set nearly 400 school records including marks for points scored, points per game, total offensive yards, first downs and passing yards over the past four seasons.

Clawson owns the school record for bowl victories, has climbed to the third-most wins in school history, and has led Wake Forest to a six-year period (2017-22) of success that had been unmatched in school history, winning 46 games over that period.

Meanwhile, the long-awaited Sutton Sports Performance Center opened in fall 2019 and gave Wake football a state-of-the-art facility that features a world-class strength and conditioning complex to go with 16,000 square feet of space for coaches' offices, recruiting space and team meeting areas as well as a specialized nutrition center. Additionally, the new McCreary Football Complex opening this fall.

Clawson joined the Demon Deacons after five seasons as the head coach at Bowling Green State University where he led the Falcons to the 2013 Mid-American Conference championship with a 47-27 win over No. 16 Northern Illinois.

In his 23 years as a head coach, Clawson has delivered a conference championship at each of his first three stops. Prior to the 2013 MAC title, Clawson helped Richmond to a pair of Colonial Athletic Association titles in 2005 and 2007. His first championship as a head coach came in 2002 when he led Fordham to the Patriot League title.

He has also earned numerous Coach of the Year awards. He was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 and 2002 and was awarded the 2005 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year award in just his second year in the league. The 2007 CAA Coach of the Year award marked his fourth conference Coach of the Year honor in his first nine years as a head coach.

In 2002, Clawson was the Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly I-AA Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award. In 2005, Clawson earned National Coach of the Year from I-AA.org and was again a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award.

A 1989 graduate of Williams College in Massachusetts, Clawson earned a degree in political economy and played defensive back.

PRO DEACS

WELCOME TO THE NFL

- For the second-consecutive year, the Demon Deacons had two players drafted. Defensive Lineman Kobie Turner was the first Wake Forest player off the board in 2023, as the Los Angeles Rams selected him in the third round with the 89th overall pick. Wide receiver A.T. Perry was taken off the board in the sixth round by the New Orleans Saints.
- Turner is the sixth Demon Deacon taken by the Rams and first since Chris Givens in the fourth round of the 2012 draft. He was the eighth defensive player taken in the Dave Clawson era and third defensive lineman. Additionally, he is the fourth-highest player drafted in the Clawson era and highest since Carlos "Boogie" Basham in 2021 (second round).
- Perry is the sixth Wake Forest player selected by the Saints and first since linebacker Stanley Arnoux in 2009. He is also the first receiver taken in the Clawson era.
- In addition to the two draftees, linebacker Ryan Smenda Jr., offensive lineman Sean Maginn and tight end Blake Whiteheart all signed with NFL teams following the draft. Smenda Jr. and Maginn joined Kobie Turner in Los Angeles with the Rams while Whiteheart rejoined old teammate Greg Dortch in Arizona.

SUPERSTAR ON THE MOVE

- After five seasons and a Super Bowl appearance with the Cincinnati Bengals, star safety Jessie Bates III recently inked a four year, $64 million deal with the Atlanta Falcons. The deal is the largest contract ever for a Wake Forest player.
- During his tenure with the Bengals, Bates III played in and started 86 games across five seasons, including seven playoff games.
- He played a major role in the rebuild of the franchise after becoming an instant starter his rookie season. He accumulated over 500 tackles, 16 interceptions and 49 pass deflections over the regular season and playoffs.

- During the 2021 playoff run, he racked up 20 tackles, six pass deflections and two interceptions, including one in the Super Bowl.
- He will look to help turnaround a Falcons team that has not had a winning season since 2017 and have a total record of 32-50 since Bates III entered the league.

SECOND YEAR PLAYERS TO WATCH

- Last season was a great year for Wake Forest rookies. Not only did 2022 NFL Draft picks Zach Tom (fourth round, 140 overall) and Ja'Sir Taylor (sixth round, 214 overall) make an impact for their respective teams, but Luke Masterson and Luiji Villain also made a 53-man roster after going undrafted.

- Tom appeared in nine games (started the last three) on the offensive line last season for the Packers, as he saw action in all five positions except center. He finished the season with the best pass block grade (78.1) on the team according to Pro Football Focus.
- Taylor spent most of the season on special teams for the Chargers in 2022, but saw action on the defensive side of the ball in the final seven games of the season, including a season-high 52 snaps in week 18. He posted the second-highest coverage grade on the team (83.6) according to PFF against the Rams.
- Masterson tallied 59 tackles across 11 defensive appearances for the Raiders and led the entire team in tackles over the final four games (34). He recorded a career-high 11 tackles, including a tackle for loss in a week 15 win over the New England Patriots.
- After spending most of the season bouncing around special teams, Luiji Villain got in for 17 snaps at linebacker in the week 18 finale for the Vikings. He notched two tackles and posted an impressive 76.9 PFF grade.

STADIUM NOTES

A NEW NAME FOR THE DEACS' HOME

- In June 2023, Wake Forest University announced a historic, long-term agreement with Allegacy Federal Credit Union, a leading financial institution and a longtime, trusted partner with mutual deep roots in Winston-Salem. The new, multi-year commitment deepens Allegacy's existing partnership with Wake Forest University by establishing the home of Wake Forest football as Allegacy Federal Credit Union Stadium.
- For more than 20 years, Allegacy has partnered with the Wake Forest family to advance the community's wellbeing. One example of this is the Allegacy Center for Leadership and Character at Wake Forest's School of Business. The ACLC accelerates the School's mission to develop leaders of character to serve the greater good through a proven track record of thought leadership, practical relevance, and partnership across Wake Forest and the broader community. Primary focus areas include creating and publishing new knowledge in top academic journals across the world, and integrating ethical leadership and character strengths into courses, academic programs, co-curricular activities, and faculty and staff development programs.

NOTABLE UPDATES OVER THE YEARS

- 2023 - Athletics installed new LED Lighting, Handrails Between Sections & Stairs on Deacon Hill and a new LED Videoboard on Bridger Field House.

PROVIDING THE HOME EDGE

- Wake Forest is an astounding 20-4 at home since the start of the 2019 season. The Deacs won a program record 11-straight contests from Oct. 2, 2020 until Sept. 17, 2022. Wake Forest's perfect 6-0 mark in 2021 is the program's first undefeated home record since 1979 and it is just the third time that this feat has been accomplished since its 1970 ACC Championship team.

HISTORY

ABOUT ALLEGACY STADIUM

After playing football in Groves Stadium since 1940, Wake Forest renamed its facility BB&T Field from 2007-19 season. Ahead of the 2020 season, it was renamed to Truist Field at Wake Forest. Now, prior to the 2023 season, Allegacy Federal Credit Union dons the stadium's name.

Wake Forest began playing intercollegiate football in Groves Stadium in 1940 when the school, then located in Wake Forest, N.C., first dedicated a 20,000-seat facility by that same name on its original campus. When Wake opened its current facility in 1968, the school kept the Groves name.

The stadium was named in honor of Henry H. Groves, Sr., who passed away in 1985. It was his generous gift that made possible the construction of the original stadium, which would be the site of some of the finest moments in Wake Forest athletic history.

The Deacs played their final game in old Wake Forest in 1955 before the school moved to Winston-Salem. After several years of playing at Bowman Gray Stadium, the Deacs moved to Groves Stadium in 1968.

In 1957, the original Groves Stadium was sold to Wake Forest High School for the sum of $10 and became the home of high school football and other community events. It was later renamed Trentini Stadium, in memory of the late Tony Trentini, a Wake Forest football player and 1956 graduate, who later returned to serve as the high school team's coach.

GAME 1 ELON WAKE FOREST

AUGUST 31 - ALLEGACY STADIUM - WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - ATTENDANCE - 30,028

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. -- On a special Opening Night when the home of Demon Deacons football donned its new name, Allegacy Federal Credit Union Stadium, Wake Forest University hosted its first season-opening sellout crowd since 2011 and its sixth sellout overall since 2021 as the Deacs downed the Elon Phoenix in dominant fashion, 37-17.

Along with a capacity crowd on hand to witness Mitch Griffis lead the offense with three touchdown passes, ACC Network broadcasted live from Allegacy Stadium for eight hours on Thursday as the Demon Deacons officially kicked off the 2023 season for the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Additionally, Thursday's victory marked the 150th in the storied head coaching career for Dave Clawson as he began his 24th season as a head coach. Coach Clawson ranks 16th in the FBS among active coaches in total wins and the Deacs are now one of just nine programs in the country with 20 victories since the start of the 2021 season.

Beyond Griffis' three touchdowns, three different Demon Deacons recorded more than 75 receiving yards on the night: Jahmal Banks (six receptions, 108 yards, one touchdown), Cameron Hite (four receptions, 91 yards, one touchdown) and Wesley Grimes (three receptions, 76 yards, one touchdown).

Defensively, both Demarcus Rankin and DaShawn Jones recorded interceptions as Wake Forest held Elon scoreless in the first half with just 251 total yards for the game.

Over the last decade in the Coach Dave Clawson era, Wake Forest is 8-2 in season openers and the Deacs hold an 7-1 mark at home in those contests.

Speaking of contests inside Allegacy Stadium, behind record-setting crowds, multiple sellouts and raucous student sections, the Deacs have been among the toughest teams to play inside their home stadium over the last three years. Wake Forest holds an 18-3 (.857) record inside Allegacy Stadium since the start of the 2020 season which included a program-record 11-game winning streak spanning from the 2020 to 2022 seasons. The 85.7 percent win rate ranks second in the ACC during that time period.

Additionally, the Demon Deacons are now 21-4 at home since the start of the 2019 season.

Wake Forest will look to continue its winning ways at home next week when the Vanderbilt Commodores come into Winston-Salem for an 11 a.m. kickoff. Less than 1,000 tickets remain for this seismic ACC-SEC clash.

SEPTEMBER 16 - S.B. BALLARD STADIUM - NORFOLK, VA. - ATTENDANCE - 18,276

NORFOLK, VA -- Behind 20 unanswered points in the second half and a program record 10 sacks by the vaunted Demon Deacons defense, head coach Dave Clawson's squad earned Wake Forest football's first road win of the 2023 season on Saturday at Old Dominion, 27-24.

Wake Forest trailed by 17 points in Saturday's win at Old Dominion. With that, the Demon Deacons second-half comeback marked the program's largest since Nov. 11, 2017, at Syracuse. In that contest, Wake Forest also trailed by 17 points and went onto win, 64-43. The 17-point come-from-behind win is tied for sixth in Wake Forest history and tied with the aforementioned 2017 contest at Syracuse for the second-largest in the Dave Clawson era.

The victory marked Wake Forest's 12th-straight win over a non-conference opponent, which is the second longest streak in the country. The Deacs only trail the two-time defending College Football Playoff Champion Georgia Bulldogs who have won 19-straight out-of-conference contests.

Defensively, Wake Forest was led by its starting linebackers on Saturday as redshirt sophomore Dylan Hazen and senior Jacob Roberts combined for 22 tackles, six tackles-for-loss and four sacks. Additionally, junior Evan Slocum recorded his first-career interception in the first half and junior Jasheen Davis tallied three sacks and a fumble recovery.

Offensively, Wake Forest had six players with multiple receptions in the game and redshirt junior Taylor Morin caught a pair of touchdowns passes and tallied 112 receiving yards overall on the day. With his two scores, Morin has now caught 19 touchdown passes in his career, which ranks tied for eighth in Demon Deacons history.

Wake Forest's student-athletes tremendous efforts on Saturday increased the Deacs' record vs. non-ACC teams over the past five years in the league as Wake is 16-2 (.889). That is the top mark in the ACC during that half-decade span, with the next closest team at 11-4 (Duke).

Additionally, head coach Dave Clawson and the Demon Deacons have been dominant over teams in the Commonwealth of Virginia as the Deacs extended their streak to seven-straight victories over teams from the state. This includes at least one win in each of the last four seasons.
