

Ziff Davis, Inc.
Antitrust and Competition Law Policy Statement
(Last revised April 2024)

Ziff Davis, Inc. (“Ziff Davis”) is committed to conducting business ethically and lawfully, including by complying with applicable antitrust and competition laws and regulations.

Employees, contractors, directors and officers of Ziff Davis are prohibited from engaging in anti-competitive behavior. Employees, contractors, directors and officers who have a concern about Ziff Davis’s business practices or conduct, including any related to antitrust or competition laws and regulations, should report their concerns to the Ziff Davis whistleblower website. Reporting any concerns is strongly encouraged, and reporting known violations of applicable antitrust and competition laws and regulations is required. In accordance with Ziff Davis’s Whistleblower Policy, Ziff Davis does not tolerate retaliation against any individual filing a good-faith complaint via the whistleblower website, or for participating in the investigation of any such complaint.

If you have any questions about any particular decision or course of action as it relates to antitrust or competition law, please contact the Ziff Davis Legal Department.
