

- The Ministry of Welfare should maintain a current registry of the chronically ill who are particularly sensitive to extreme weather events and are living alone, in addition to the registry of people with special needs.
- The Ministry of the Interior should pass on updated information on the geographic distribution of children under the age of 3 to the Ministry of Welfare.
- The Ministry of Industry, Trade and Labor should maintain a current database on the geographical distribution and job descriptions of outdoor workers.