

CONTENTS

Notes on Contributors

Preface

Introduction — Ethnic Conflict in Buddhist Societies:

Sri Lanka, Thailand and Burma

K.M. de Silva

1

Part I: Theoretical Issues

1. The Logic of Identity Profiles and the Ethic of Communal Violence:
A Buddhist Perspective
Padmasiri de Silva 14
2. Of Imagination and the State
Chaiwat Satha-Anand 27
3. Minorities in Buddhist Doctrine
P.D. Premasiri 42

Part II: Buddhism, Minorities and Public Policy

4. Nationalism and the State in Sri Lanka
K.M. de Silva 62
5. Minorities in Burmese History
Ronald D. Renard 77
6. Nationalism and the State in Thailand
Likhit Dhiravegin 92

Part III: Buddhist Institutions and Minorities

7. Buddhist Resurgence and Christian Privilege in Sri Lanka, c. 1940–1965
K.N.O. Dharmadasa 110

8. Impact of the Dhammacarik Bhikkhus' Programme on the Hill Tribes of Thailand
Sanit Wongsprasert 126
9. Sri Lankan Monks on Ethnicity and Nationalism
Nathan Katz 138

Part IV: Case Studies of Minorities in Buddhist Polities

10. The Indian Tamil Plantation Workers in Sri Lanka: Welfare and Integration
S.W.R. de A. Samarasinghe 156
11. Religious Minorities in Burma in the Contemporary Period
Trevor O. Ling 172
12. The Lotus and the Crescent: Clashes of Religious Symbolisms in Southern Thailand
Surin Pitsuwan 187
13. Sri Lanka's Muslim Minority
K.M. de Silva 202
- Index 215