Contents

Foreword ix
Preface xi
Acknowledgements xiv

Chapter — 1 The Humanities: Importance

1.0 A Plea for the Humanities 1
– K. Viswanatham
1.1 Humanities and the University 9
– K. Ramakrishna Rao
1.2 Aim and Scope of Research in Humanities 18
– K. Ayyappa Paniker
1.3 The Positive Aspect of Humanistic Studies 23
– P.N. Kaula

Chapter — 2 The Humanities: Scope and Meaning

2.0 Humanities—The Dilemma of Definition 33
– G.V.S.L. Narasimha Raju
2.1 Humanities and the Need for Documentation 38
– L.S. Ramaiah
2.2 The Humanities: Conceptualization, Classification and Clarification 43
– M. Kanakachary

Chapter — 3 The Humanities: Classification Schedules

3.0 Fine Arts: Scope and Treatment in the Universal Decimal Classification and Colon Classification 55
– A.A.N. Raju
3.1 Depth Classification for Indological Literature: Compulsions 66
– Narinder Kumar Sharma

Chapter — 4 The Humanities: Problems and Prospects

4.0 Bibliographical Organisation of Commonwealth Literature in the Humanities: A Case for the Establishment of a Commonwealth Studies Research Institute in India 83
– K.S. Deshpande

4.1 Bibliographical Control in Indology: Scope and Importance of the Humanities 99
– Krishan Kumar
4.2 Bibliographical Control of American/English Literature in India 104
– S.D. Vyas
4.3 Bibliographical Control of Islamic Literature in India: Trends and Prospects 116
– Mohamed Taher
4.4 Problems of Bibliographical Control in the Study of Philosophy 126
– Dorothy Isaac
4.5 Problems of Conservation of Manuscripts in Indian Libraries 133
– Subhas C. Biswas
4.6 Buhar Collection in the National Library: An Important Information Source in Humanities 144
– Sk. Mazharul Islam

Chapter — 5 The Humanities: Research Activity

5.0 Information Use Pattern of Indian Historians 157
– C.R. Karisiddappa, S.L. Sangam and B.S. Maheshwarappa
5.1 Information Needs and Use Pattern of Humanities Scholars 166
– G. Devarajan
5.2 Information Seeking Behaviour of the Humanists 174
– N.V. Jagga Rao and M. Kanakachary

Chapter — 6 The Humanities: Tools for Bibliographic Control

6.0 Mapping the Way through English Literature and Language—Indexing and Abstracting Services 183
– A.H. Sales Pontes
6.1 Bibliographical Tools in Telugu 203
– V. Venkatappaiah
6.2 Development of Reference Sources in Kannada: A Methodological Analysis 209
– C.R. Karisiddapa
6.3 Malayalam Reference Books in Humanities 223
– V. Rajam

6.4 Bibliographic Control in Kannada 234
– R.L. Anantharamaiah
6.5 Bibliographic Control of Humanities Periodical Literature in Indian Languages 243
– G. Kumarappa
6.6 Information Needs and Resources in Linguistics: A Case Study 250
– L.S. Ramaiah and T.V. Prafulla Chandra

Chapter — 7 The Humanities: Institutional Profiles

7.0 Documentation and Library Services of Tamil University 261
– T. Padmanaban
7.1 The Central Institute of Indian Languages: Library and Documentation Activities 265
– Sulochana S. Murthy
7.2 Documentation of Indian Literature: The Pioneering Role of Sahitya Akademi 278
– K.C. Dutt
7.3 American Studies Research Centre: Resources and Services in Humanities 285
– Sreenidhi Iyengar and Dr. N.G. Satish

Chapter — 8 The Humanities: Documentation and Bibliographic Centres' Proposals

8.0 Indian Council of Humanities Research (ICHR): A National Plan 297
– P. Soma Raju
8.1 Document Delivery: A Case for NHDC 304
– L.S. Ramaiah and Mr. T.V. Prafulla Chandra
8.2 National Humanities Documentation Centre: An Alternative Model 315
– Roma Ray

Appendices

I. List of Institutions Concerning the Humanities in India 323
II. List of National Documentation Centres in India 331
III. Recommendations of Special Interest Group (SIG) in Humanities of the IASLIC 334

Index 339