

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
1. Questioning Gender: An Introduction.....	1
Cheryl Claassen
2. Women's Participation in American Prehistoric and Historic Archaeology: A Comparative Look at the Journals American Antiquity and Historical Archaeology	11
Katharine L. Victor and Mary C. Beaudry
3. The Muted Class: Unshackling Tradition	23
Alice Kehoe
4. Observing Prehistoric Women	33
Brian Hayden
5. Prehistoric Construction of Mothering	49
Kathleen Bolen
6. Images of Gender and Labor Organization in Classic Maya Society	63
Rosemary Joyce
7. Gender and Technology at the Archaic-Woodland Transition	71
Kenneth E. Sassaman
8. Health Consequences of Sexual Division of Labor Among Prehistoric Native Americans: The Chumash of California and the Arikara of the North Plains...81
Sandra Hollimon
9. Activating Women in Arikara Ceramic Production.....	89
Christi Mitchell
10. Colonization and Women's Production: The Timucua of Florida	95
Ruth Troccoli
11. Social Differentiation on the Farmstead	103
Linda Stine
12. Workshop 1: Engendering the Contact Period.....	111
Edited by Janet Levy and Cheryl Claassen
13. Workshop 2: Engendering the Pleistocene/Holocene Transition	127
Edited by Cheryl Claassen
14. Workshop 3: Teaching Gender	137
Edited by Cheryl Claassen
Appendix: Teaching Syllabae	155