

Contents

list of Tables	ix
Glossary	x
Acknowledgements	xiii
Foreword by John Lonsdale	xvi
Preface	1
 One	 13
The Settlement of Kiambu until the Kirika Famine of 1835
The first months of jieldwork	1 3
Kikuyu ideology of history	15
Traditions of settlement and forest economies	18
77K acquisition of land	20
Forest economies	2 1
The ideology of individual and gender	2 3
Women and men in a forest economy	25
Interpretations and traditions of land ownership	26
Mhari traditions from the days of the forest economies and mbari interpretations	28
Oral traditions of Uiuuta and Igi before Kirika	29
Wealth and poverty before Kirika	33
Fission of Uie Mhari	34
The Relationship with Alurang'a and Uie Kinka famine	35
 TWO	 43
From Kirika until the End of the Nineteenth Century
Economic and Social development in Uie early /w.i/-Kinka decades	44
The ahoi system	46
The nineteenUi-century post-Kinkj. mhari	48
TumtieUi-century conflicts of /gi oral traditions	53
Conflicts hosed on interpretations of the mhari	54
Possible oral traditions before oral traditions.	56
Injiantance and tnefjuahy	58
Uie cost of the land	60
The last decades: wealth, concentration of power and dependence	6 1
The organization of the trade	63
The growth of social and political differentiation over time	65
The role of Uie anak and Uie mariika	68
Curbs on anak and mariika	69
Warfare and Uie disasters of Uie final decade	70
 Three	 84
Land Ownership in the Twentieth Century
Immediate post-famine conditions	84
ljical land alienation	85
losses of land alienation	88
Immediate consequences of Uie bss of land	89
77K opening of the Rift Valley	90
Consequences of Uie loss of land in Uie early deidades	93
Monettzatum and land acquisitions	95
The position of Uie ahoi	96

Land holdings before the Carter Commission, early 1930s	98
The Carter Commission	101
The Carter Commission Report as colonial dividing line	102
Land ownership and acquisition after the Carter Report	104
Conflict about land	105
Litigation in Thuita and Igi: the thrust for land consolidation	106

Four

US

The Labour Market for the Local Population

Early labour markets	1 16
Clerical and administrative work in the local and settled area	1 18
Basic, semi-skilled and skilled work for men in the local and settled area	1 19
Work for women in the local and settled area	123
The Nairobi labour market before the Depression	1 2 7
The Nairobi labour market from the Depression to the 1940s	1 29
The labour market in Nairobi	1 30
Strategies for coping with Nairobi conditions in the 1940s	1 33
Strategies for coping with rural conditions	1 35
Employment immediately before the declaration of the Emergency	1 36

Five

144

Land, Labour & Living in the Colonial Era

Diet, crops and use of land in the early twentieth century	144
Factors of fertility: land and labour	146
Early land use of larger land owners and the changes of the 1920s	148
Early land use of smaller land owners and the changes of the 1920s	149
The use of land after the Carter Commission	157
Manure, government intervention and the larger land owners	1 57
Conditions in the late 1940s	165
The reform of education	169

Six

175

Resistance of the Elders until the Beginning of Mau Mau

The resistance of the elders	1 75
The ideology of the resistance of the elders	1 7 7
Pacification	177
Utilization	178
Direct protest, the land, and the Kikuyu Association	178
The weakening of direct protest by elders	184
The fight for rural unification through the Mbari	187
The battle for control of education	188
The female circumcision issue	189
GiUiunguri Teacher's Training College	193
The re-entry of the elders into the resistance	195
The return of the Rift Valley migrants	196
The return of Kenyatta	199

Seven

212

The Resistance of the Land Poor & Landless:

The Beginning of Mau Mau

The relationship between landless, land poor and the landed	2 1 3
The early Kenyalla years, 194650: myth and reality	2 16

The beginning of Alau Mau	2 19
The government's perspective	22 0
The probable beginning of urban Mau Mau	22 1
77K possible beginning of Mau Mau in the rural area	22 6
1950, the year of anger and frustration	22 7
From 1951 until the declaration of the Emergency	23 6
Opposition to Mau Mau in 1952	23 7

Eight	24 8
The Emergency, Marige &amp; the End of Mau Mau
Screening	25 0
Marige	25 1
Vie end of Mau Mau	25 8

Appendices

Appendix 1	264
Data, Reliability &amp; Analysis
1. Method of work	26 4
2. Oral traditions	26 5
3. Oathis	26 5
4. Punishments for oathis	26 6
5. Time of oath taking	26 6
6. Dating of oaths and correlation with other factors	26 6
7. Where oathis were taken	26 7
8. Age	26 7
Data on domicile	26 8
10. Economic classifications	26 8
11. Information about the size of land holdings	26 9
12. Wages	26 9
Appendix II	271
Oral Traditions
1. Oral traditions of Thmla	27 1
2. Statements about Kikuyu history from Igi	27 3
Appendix III	275
Notes on Kiambu Social Organization
1. Kiambu personalities in the early colonial period	27 5
2. The Kikuyu as a tribe	27 6
3. Generation and handing over	17 1
4. Matuika and Mau Mau	28 0
5. Notes on colonial chiefs	28 0
Appendix IV	284
Economic data
1. Currencies and taxes	28 4
2. Cost of goods	28 4
3. Cost of local land	28 5
4. Cost of clearing land	28 5
5. Minimum wages per day and per annum	28 6
6. Piece work	28 6
7. Brideprices	28 6
«. Production of basic foods. Grade 1, Grade 2, and DARD	28 6

9. TieU of three acres land	287
10. Cost of manure	288
11. Recommended sequence of crop rotation with minimal manure	289
12. Cost/yield of some auxiliary crops	289
13. Production one acre pineapples, 1950 prices	289
14. Production one acre onions, 1950 prices	290
15. Minimum wages in settled/local area;	290
compared with general prices and productivity on one acre Grade 2 land
fi. Mean wages Nairobi, before Emergency	291
17. Coffee in the settled area in the early twentieth century and its influence on the production of maize	291
18. Local coffee notes	291
19. Local coffee expectations and production	292
20. Cost of living, auxiliary foods and non-food items	293
Appendix V	296
Notes on the Kenya Land Commission Report
Appendix VI	299
Notes on the Rift Valley
1. Return from the Rift Valley	300
2. General data on the returnees	301
3. Mau Mau membership among Rift Valley repatriates	303
4. Violence and Nanyul District	304
Appendix VII	307
Notes on Local Education
Appendix VIII	311
Late Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Oaths
1. Kinyua Muuma	311
2. Oaths which created, structured or restructured relationships	312
3. Cursing oaths	313
4. Commitment and structuring oaths in the twentieth century	315
5. Named twentieth-century oaths	315
6. Legitimacy and illegitimacy of Mau Mau oaths	317
Appendix IX	321
Notes on Mau Mau
1. Relationship between KAU and Mau Mau	321
2. Initiation years and Mau Mau participation	322
3. Elders' rank and Mau Mau participation: Rift Valley, rural and Nairobi	323
4. Age and Mau Mau membership	323
5. Resistance and collaboration	323
fi. Screening	325
7. Homeguards	327
8. Cleansing ritual	328
9. The unity of Mau Mau, Kiambu and the forest	329
Appendix X	334
Land Consolidation &amp; Villagization
1. Land consolidation	334
2. Villagization	336
Selected Bibliography	338
Index	348