
Contents

Preface	ix
Map of El Salvador	xiii
1 Strategy and Revolution	1
Social-Scientific and Historical Approaches to Revolution, 3
Marxism and Twentieth-Century Revolutions, 5
The Role of Strategy, 10
2 The Origins of El Salvador's Crisis	17
Economic Roots of the Crisis, 18
Failure of the Political System, 22
Transformation of Peasant Consciousness, 26
Strategies of the Revolutionary Organizations, 33
Strategies of the Regime, 42
Toward a Revolutionary Crisis, 44
Summary, 48
3 Preparation for War	53
Assessment of the Strength of Major Actors
Following the Coup, 55
Strategies of the Major Actors, 57
Assessment of Competing Strategies, 63
4 Fighting Different Wars:
Insurgent and Counterinsurgent Strategies
from the January 1981 FMLN Offensive to Mid-1984	73
Revolutionary and Counterrevolutionary Strategy:
Interests, Objectives, and Resources, 74
Military Strategy, 78
The War in the Political Arena, 88
The Economic War, 100
Evaluation of the Strategies, 103

5	The Primacy of the Political: Strategies of Insurgency and Counterinsurgency, 1984-1989	121
	Counterinsurgency Strategies, 123
	Insurgent Strategies, 132
	Major Developments and Trends in This Period and Their Relationship to the Strategies, 137
	Assessment of the Strategies, 153
6	Resolving the Conflict Through Negotiations	169
	Perspectives and Strategies, 170
	Strategies of the Two Sides in This Period, 177
	Major Developments and Their Relationship to Strategies, 190-1991, 179
	The Outcome of the Negotiations: What the Parties Sought and What They Achieved, 191
7	Conclusion	197
	The Role of Strategy in El Salvador's Crisis of 1979-1980, 197
	The Role of Strategy in the Civil War, 200
	Contrasting the Competing Strategies, 201
	The Importance of Specific Strategies, 205
	The Role of Strategy in Revolutionary Processes, 207
	The Tragedy of El Salvador and the Hope for the Future, 209
	Epilogue	213
	Acronyms	215
	Bibliography	219
	Index	229
	About the Book	242