

Contents

Acknowledgments		vii
List of Abbreviations		viii
List of Plates		ix
Preface		xi
Section I Love Letters?
1. Margaret Mullett	From Byzantium, with love	3
2. Mary B. Cunningham	'Shutting the gates of the soul': spiritual treatises on resisting the passions	23
Section II Do as your Father tells you
3. Kathy L. Gaca	The sexual and social dangers of Pornai in the Septuagint Greek stratum of patristic Christian Greek thought	35
4. Aideen Hartney	Manly women and womanly men: the subintroductae and John Chrysostom	41
5. Joseph A. Munitiz	Anastasios of Sinai's teaching on body and soul	49
6. Dirk Krausmüller	Divine sex: Patriarch Methodios's concept of virginity	57
7. Peter Hatlie	The city a desert: Theodore of Stoudios on porneia	67
Section III Problems with Bodies
8. Bernard Stolte	Desires denied: marriage, adultery and divorce in early Byzantine law	77
9. Antony Eastmond	Body vs. column: the cults of St Symeon Stylites	87

10. Béatrice Caseau	Christian bodies: the senses and early Byzantine Christianity	101
11. Charles Barber	Writing on the body: memory, desire, and the holy in iconoclasm	111
Section IV Fine Manly Bodies
12. Kathryn M. Ringrose	Passing the test of sanctity: denial of sexuality and involuntary castration	123
13. Dion C. Smythe	In denial: same-sex desire in Byzantium	139
14. Shaun Tougher	Michael III and Basil the Macedonian: just good friends?	149
Section V Byzantine Erotica
15. Marc Lauxtermann	Ninth-century classicism and the erotic muse	161
16. John Hanson	Erotic imagery on Byzantine ivory caskets	173
17. Barbara Zeitler	Ostentatio genitalium : displays of nudity in Byzantium	185
Section VI Conclusion
18. Averil Cameron	Desire in Byzantium – the Ought and the Is	205
Index		215