

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction
JONATHAN P. PARRY	ix
1. The study of industrial labour in post-colonial India— The formal sector: An introductory review	1
JAN BREMAN
2. Work and resistance in the Jharia coalfield	43
DILIP SIMEON
3. On living in the kal(i)yug: Notes from Nagda, Madhya Pradesh	77
CHRISTOPHER PINNEY
4. Lords of labour: Working and shirking in Bhilai	107
JONATHAN P. PARRY
5. Just like a family? Recalling the relations of production in the textile industries of Surat and Bhiwandi, 1940–60	141
DOUGLAS E. HAYNES
6. Hope and despair: Textile workers in Kanpur in 1937–38 and the 1990s	171
CHITRA JOSHI
7. Questions of class: The general strikes in Bombay, 1928–29	205
RAJNARAYAN CHANDAVARKAR
8. At the margins: Women workers in the Bengal jute industry	239
SAMITA SEN
9. The badli system in industrial labour recruitment: Managers' and workers' strategies in Calcutta's jute industry	271
ARJAN DE HAAN
10. Artisan labour in the Agra footwear industry: Continued informality and changing threats	303
PETER KNORRINGA
11. Gender ideologies and the formation of rural industrial classes in South India today	329
KARIN KAPADIA

12. Diamonds and Patels: A report on the diamond industry of Surat	353
MIRANDA ENGELSHOVEN
13. Asking for and giving baki: Neo-bondage, or the interplay of bondage and resistance in the Tamilnadu power-loom industry	379
GEERT DE NEVE
14. The study of industrial labour in post-colonial India— The informal sector: A concluding review	407
JAN BREMAN
About the editors and contributors	433
Index	437