

Contents

Frans Baudouin, Concept, Design and Execution. The Intervention of the Patron	1
I. Concept	27
Carl Van de Velde, Painters and Patrons in Antwerp in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries	29
Elizabeth McGrath, Humanism, Allegorical Invention, and the Personification of the Continents	43
Fiona Healy, Bedrooms and Banquets: Mythology in Sixteenth-Century Flemish Painting	73
Jeffrey Muller, Confraternity and Art in the St Jacob's Church, Antwerp: A Case Study of the Altar of the Brotherhood of St Rochus	97
Christine Van Mulders, Peter Paul Rubens en Jan Brueghel I: de drijfveren van hun samenwerking	111
II. Design	127
Arnout Balis, Working it out: Design Tools and Procedures in Sixteenth- and Seventeenth-century Flemish Art	129
Jeremy Wood, Rubens as Thief: His Use of Past Art and Some Adaptations from Primaticcio	153
Gregory Martin, Rubens's Paintings for the Banqueting House: A Talk Partially Recaptured	171
Anne-Marie Logan, Consistency and Change in Rubens's Preliminary Drawings	175
III. Execution	193
Hans Vlieghe, The Execution of Flemish Paintings between 1550 and 1700: A Survey of the Main Stages	195
Nora De Poorter, Seriewerk en recyclage: doorgedreven efficiëntie in het geroutineerde atelier van Jacob Jordaens	213

- Katlijne Van der Stighelen,
Van zelfbeeld tot ezel: kunstenaarsalaam op zestiende- en zeventiende-eeuwse zelfportretten 233
- Konrad Renger,
Entstehung und Veränderung von Rubens' Bildgedanken. Zum Beispiel die 'Zwei Satyrn' in der Alten Pinakothek 261
- Christopher Brown,
*The Construction and Development of Rubens's Landscapes:
Reflections on the London Exhibition* 267
- Nico Van Hout,
Rubens and Dead Colouring: Some Remarks on two Unfinished Paintings 279