

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction	1
Part I Towards an ecocritical art history
1 The evolution of ecocritical art history	29
2 Art history in an expanded field: techniques, materials, land, energy, environments	45
3 Ecologies of feminism and the queer	60
Part II The politics of nonhierarchy: anarchism, social ecology and art
4 Anarchist and social ecological roots	81
5 Art history and anarchism	95
6 Ecologies: political, cultural, green	112
Part III Matter, ground and flesh
7 New materialism and the wisdom of the rocks	135
8 Art history as a posthumanities practice	146
9 Animalities and implantations	162
Conclusion: Paying attention – environmental justice and ecocritical art history	178
Bibliography	190
Index	201