

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
General Editors' Preface	ix
Introduction: Gissing's Critical Contexts Martin Ryle and Jenny Bourne Taylor	1
1 Blatherwicks and Busybodies: Gissing on the Culture of Philanthropic Slumming Diana Maltz	15
2 Her Appearance in Public: Sexual Danger, Urban Space and the Working Woman Emma Liggins	29
3 'Just a morsel to stay your appetite': Gissing and the Cultural Politics of Food Scott McCracken	47
4 The Strange Case of Godwin Peak: Double Consciousness in Born in Exile Jenny Bourne Taylor	61
5 Sex and the City: Gissing, Helmholtz, Freud David Glover	11
6 The Discontents of Everyday Life: Civilization and the Pathology of Masculinity in The Whirlpool Simon J. James	93
7 Whirlpools of Modernity: European Naturalism and the Urban Phantasmagoria Deborah Parsons	107
8 'To show a man of letters': Gissing, Cultural Authority and Literary Modernism Martin Ryle	119
9 New Grub Street's Self-Consciousness Christina Lupton and Tilman Reitz	133
10 The Voice of the Unclassed: Gissing and Twentieth-Century English Fiction Patrick Parrinder	145
Index	159