

Contents

Preface i

THE ARTS IN EARLY MEDIEVAL ITALY

- I Artistic Strategies and Cultural Patronage in Lombard Italy 1
- II The Power of Patronage and the Iconography of Quality in the Era of 774 40
- III The Painted Decoration of San Salvatore in Brescia in Context 66
- IV St. Johann at Müstair: The Painted Decoration in Context 140
- V The Wall-Paintings in Santa Maria foris Portas at Castelseprio and the Tower at Torba. Reflections and Reappraisal 185
- VI Farfa Revisited: The Early Medieval Monastic Church 247

SAN VINCENZO AL VOLTURNO

- VII Literacy Displayed: The Use of Inscriptions at the Monastery of San Vincenzo al Volturno in the Early Ninth Century 295
- VIII The Crypt Reappraised 339

IX	Spatial Hierarchy and the Uses of Ornament in an Early Medieval Monastery	411
X	A Word on Ornament	450
XI	Art of Many Colours: The Dadoes of San Vincenzo and Issues of Marbling in the Post-Roman World	454
XII	The Early Medieval Monastery as a Site of Commemoration and a Place of Oblivion	484
XIII	Cult, Relics and Privileged Burial at San Vincenzo al Volturno in the Age of Charlemagne: The Discovery of the Tomb of Abbot Talaricus (817 – 8th October 823)	501
XIV	Script about the Cross: The Tombstones of San Vincenzo al Volturno	522
XV	The Workshops of San Vincenzo al Volturno: Phases of Production and Dynamics of a Ninth-Century Monastery	553
XVI	A Carved Ivory Head from San Vincenzo al Volturno	592
XVII	An Early Medieval Enamel	613
XVIII	A Set of Sword Belt Mounts of Iron Inlaid with Silver and Associated Bridle-Furniture	631
XIX	The San Vincenzo Community in Capua	676
XX	Giudizio sul Mille : Rome, Montecassino, San Vincenzo al Volturno and the Beginnings of the Romanesque	695
	Bibliography	713
	Index	727
	Acknowledgements	747