

CONTENTS

1 Britain and France, Connected Empires	1
James R. Fichter
Part I Empire in Africa	17
2 From Slaves to Gum: Colonial Trade and French-British Rivalry in Eighteenth-Century Senegambia	19
Cheikh Sène
3 “Our Anglo-Saxon Colleagues”: French Administration of Niger and the Constraining Embrace of British Northern Nigeria	35
Barbara M. Cooper
Part II Empire and Islam	65
4 Anglo-French Connections and Cooperation against “Islamic” Resistance, 1914–1917	67
John Slight

5	Sacred Surveillance: Indian Muslims, Waqf, and the Evolution of State Power in French Mandate Syria James Casey	89
Part III Empire at Sea		111
6	A Shared Sea: The Axes of French and British Imperialism in the Mediterranean, 1798–1914 John Perry	113
7	A Second “Fashoda”? Britain, India, and a French “Threat” in Oman at the End of the Nineteenth Century Guillemette Crouzet	131
8	Imperial Interdependence on Indochina’s Maritime Periphery: France and Coal in Ceylon, Singapore, and Hong Kong, 1859–1895 James R. Fichter	151
9	French Kwang-Chow-Wan and British Hong Kong: Politics and Shipping, 1890s–1920s Bert Becker	181
Part IV Empire and Administration		223
10	Sharing Colonial Sovereignty? The Anglo-French Experience of the New Hebrides Condominium, 1880s–1930s Hélène Blais	225

11	British and French Colonial Statistics: Development by Hybridization from the Nineteenth to the Mid-Twentieth Centuries	249
	Béatrice Touchelay
	Part V Imperial Ends	275
12	Britain and Free France in Africa, 1940–1943	277
	Eric T. Jennings
13	The End of Empires and Some Linguistic Turns: British and French Language Policies in Inter- and Postwar Africa	297
	Diana Lemberg
	Index	323