

Contents

- List of Illustrations VII
Acknowledgment XIV
Notes on Contributors XV
- 1 Introduction: "The Queen of the Baltic Coast" 1
Carsten Jahnke
 - 2 The Beginnings and Early Development of Lübeck's Central Settlement 18
Ulf Stammwitz
 - 3 Twelfth Century Timber Buildings in Lübeck's Oldest Quarter 36
Dirk Rieger
 - 4 The Earliest Use of Brickwork in Lübeck's Secular Buildings: New Findings of the Excavations 2009–2014 66
Ursula Radis
 - 5 "Building History": Lübeck in the Architectural History of the Middle Ages 93
Manfred Finke
 - 6 A Matter of Distance? The Bishops and the City of Lübeck in the Late Middle Ages 166
Anja Vofshall
 - 7 Between Reclusion and Integration: Monasteries and Convents in Medieval Lübeck 185
Antjekathrin Graßmann
 - 8 Lübeck: Early Economic Development and the Urban Hinterland 226
Carsten Jahnke
 - 9 Lübeck's Trade in the Fifteenth Century 253
Angela Ling Huang

- 10 Art, Belief, and Calculation: On the Churches and Christian
Endowments of Medieval Lübeck 273
Hildegard Vogeler and Hartmut Freytag
- 11 Hermen Rode: The Painter of Medieval Lübeck and His Art
Production 306
Anja Rasche
- 12 The "Niederstadtbuch": A Source for the History of Private Life of
Lübeckers around 1500 352
Harm von Seggern
- 13 Lübeck's Confraternities 372
Carsten Jahnke
- Index 399