

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	viii
Foreword Anne Karpf	ix
Acknowledgements	xiv
Note on Transliteration	xv
Introduction. Testimonies of Resistance Nicholas Chare and Dominic Williams	1
Part I. Historical and Ethical Questions of Representation
Chapter 1. Knowing Cruelty: The Negation of Death and Burial in SS Violence Griselda Pollock	33
Chapter 2. What Makes the Grey Zone Grey? Blurring Factual and Ethical Judgements of the Sonderkommando Dominic Williams	69
Part II. Witnessing from the Heart of Hell
Chapter 3. Farewell Letter from the Crematorium: On the Authorship of the First Recorded 'Sonderkommando-Manuscript' and the Discovery of the Original Letter Andreas Kilian	91
Chapter 4. To Read the Illegible: Techniques of Multispectral Imaging and the Manuscripts of the Jewish Sonderkommando of Auschwitz-Birkenau Pavel Polian and Aleksandr Nikityaev	102

Chapter 5. 'Like a True Greek': The Last Will and Testimony of Marcel Natzari K.E. Fleming	106
Chapter 6. Disinterred Words: The Letters of Herman Strasfogel and Marcel Nadjary Nicholas Chare, Ersy Contogouris and Dominic Williams	111
Chapter 7. The Letter of Herman Strasfogel Translated by Ersy Contogouris	131
Chapter 8. The Letter of Marcel Nadjary Translated by Ersy Contogouris	138
Chapter 9. The Religious Life of Sonderkommando Members inside the Killing Installations in Auschwitz-Birkenau Gideon Greif	143
 Part III. Retrospective Representations
Chapter 10. Doubly Cursed: The Sonderkommando in the Documents of the International Tracing Service Dan Stone	159
Chapter 11. Enduring Witness: David Olère's Visual Testimony Carol Zemel	182
Chapter 12. The Sonderkommando and the Auschwitz-Birkenau Memorial Museum Dominic Williams and Isabel Wollaston	193
Chapter 13. Early and Late Testimonies of the Sonderkommando Survivors Gideon Greif	215
Chapter 14. From Special Operations Executive to Sonderkommando: Sebastian Faulks and the Anxiety of Invention Sue Vice	230
Chapter 15. Out of the Plan, Out of the Plane 2: Stripping, Fourth Letter to Gerhard Richter Georges Didi-Huberman	247
Chapter 16. Greeks in the Birkenau Sonderkommando: Representation and Reality Steven Bowman	265

Part IV. Cinema and the Sonderkommando

Chapter 17. 'We Did Something': Framing Resistance in Cinematic Depictions of the Sonderkommando	287
Barry Langford
Chapter 18. 'We Can't Know What We're Capable Of': Approaching the 'Grey Zone' in Holocaust Film	307
Adam Brown
Chapter 19. The Sonderkommando on Screen	332
Philippe Mesnard
Afterword. Tracing Topographies of Memory and Mourning	346
Victor Jeleniewski Seidler
Index	369