

Contents

Acknowledgement	IX
List of Illustrations	X
Note on Terms and Transliteration	XXVII

Introduction	1
--------------	---

PART I

Before Statehood

1	The Clarion Call: E. M. Lilien and the Jewish Renaissance	19
1.1	Life, Heroism, and Beauty	21
1.2	Lilien's Winged Figures	26
1.3	Restrained Decadence: Jewish Angels	29
1.4	Olympus and Golgotha in the Service of Zionism	30
2	Boris Schatz's Pantheon of Zionist Cultural Heroes	43
2.1	A Day Dream	44
2.2	A New Florence	47
2.3	A Hebrew Pantheon: Individual Commemoration	50
2.4	Collective Commemoration	59
2.5	Schatz's Legacy: Models for a Sovereign State Heroes	61
3	"The Garden of Love": Early Zionist Eroticism	67
3.1	The Garden of Love: a Remedial Institution for Nervous Atrophy	68
3.2	In the Song of Songs Pavilion	70
3.3	The New Jew: Intellect and Sensuality Combined	71
3.4	Kisses and Embraces	77
3.5	Orientalism and Symbolism in the Zionist-Biblical World	79
3.6	The Secular Bride	81
4	Zionist Revival and Rebirth on the Façade of the Municipal School in Tel Aviv	83
4.1	Past and Present Come Together	84
4.2	Four Hebrew Cities	88

PART 2

Objects and Conceptions of Sovereignty

- 5 Israel's Scroll of Independence 103
- 6 Hues of Heaven: the Israeli Flag 116
- 6.1 The Zionist Flag 117
- 6.2 The Magen David (David's Shield) or the Jewish Star 118
- 6.3 The Blue Stripes 122
- 6.4 First Proposals for an Israeli Flag 125
- 6.5 A Multitude of King David's Shields 131
- 7 Menorah and Olive Branches on Israel's National Emblem 137
- 7.1 In Search of a National Emblem 139
- 7.2 Archaeology and Socialism: Jewish Tradition versus Secularism 140
- 7.3 The Shamir Brothers Studio's Proposal 146
- 7.4 Prophet Zecharia's Vision: Harmony between State and Church 148
- 7.5 A Visual Precedent from 1300 151
- 7.6 Public Reactions to the Design of the National Emblem 152
- 8 From Exile to Homeland: the Mythical Journey of the Temple Menorah 159
- 8.1 An Icon of Destruction 159
- 8.2 The Arch of Titus: a Symbol of Destruction and Exile 160
- 8.3 "Oh Titus, Titus, If You Could Only See!" 165
- 8.4 The Menorah Returns Home 167
- 8.5 A Miraculous Translocation 169
- 8.6 A Gift from the Mother of Parliaments to the New Israeli Parliament 170
- 8.7 Benno Elkan: a Self-Anointed Modern Bezalel 174
- 8.7.1 Links in a Chain: Candelabras in Milan Cathedral, Westminster Abbey and the Parliament of Israel 176
- 8.7.2 A Modular Iconographic System 179
- 8.7.3 Concise Rendering of Alleged Jewish History 179
- 8.8 The Menorah's Penultimate Station on Its Way Home: Kssalon Settlement 183
- 8.8.1 The Menorah's Last Station? 185
- 8.9 Visual References to the Israeli Menorah Motif 186

- 9 Zionism Liberates the Captured Daughter of Zion 189
- 9.1 The Judaea capta Coin 189
- 9.2 Jewish References to the Roman Judaea capta Coin 192
- 9.3 From Judaea capta to Judaea liberata 196
- 9.4 The Judaea capta Image on Official Israeli Publications 203
- 9.5 A Late Israeli Daughter of Zion 206
- 10 The Twelve Tribes of Israel: from Biblical Symbolism to Emblems of a Mythical Promised Land 209
- 10.1 The Twelve Tribes of Israel: Symbolizing the Unity and Diversity of the Jewish People 209
- 10.2 Biblical and Midrashim Sources 210
- 10.3 Verbal Turned Visual: Heraldic Emblems of the Twelve Tribes 211
- 10.4 From Christian Bibles to Jewish Synagogue Decorations 218
- 10.5 E. M. Lilien's Legacy 222
- 10.6 Beyond Lilien's Legacy 227
- 10.7 Symbols of Sovereignty 229
- 10.8 Emblems of a Mythical Promised Land 239
- 11 Old and New in Land of Israel Flora 244
- 11.1 Israeli Plants as Local Icons 244
- 11.2 Familiar Biblical Plants: the Seven Kinds 245
- 11.3 The Four Species 247
- 11.4 Grapes, Figs, and Pomegranates as Symbols of Sovereignty 250
- 11.5 The Spies Motif 251
- 11.6 The New Jew as a Tiller of the Soil 254
- 11.7 Herzl's Cypress Tree Myth 254
- 11.8 Unfamiliar Wild Plants 259
- 11.9 "A Very Lovely Cyclamen" 264
- 11.10 "We Shall Return as Red Flowers" 268
- 11.11 "Nobody Understands Cyclamens Anymore" 270
- 11.12 Local Plants Revisited 274
- 11.13 A Symbol Shared by Two Peoples: the Israeli Cactus 282
- 12 Ancient Magic and Modern Transformation: the Unique Hebrew Alphabet 286
- 12.1 Hebrew Calligraphy 287
- 12.2 Hebrew Typography 287
- 12.3 Hebrew Typography in Israeli Design 300
- 12.4 Uses of the Hebrew Alphabet in Non-textual Israeli Visual Media 301

PART 3

Sculptural Commemoration within the Israeli Public Space

- 13 From Pilgrimage Site to Military Marching Grounds: Theodor Herzl's Gravesite in Jerusalem 315
- 13.1 Herzl's Coffin Brought to Tel Aviv 317
- 13.2 Herzl's Burial Ceremony in Jerusalem 317
- 13.3 International Competition for Herzl's Burial Site Design 320
- 13.4 Winner of the Competition: Yosef Klarwein's Design 324
- 13.5 Runner-up Prize: Danziger and Shalgi's Design 326
- 13.6 The Committee for Herzl's Burial Site Doubts Its Own Decisions 328
- 13.7 Herzl's Tomb Final Design and Unveiling 329
- 14 Natan Rapoport's Soviet Style of the Yad Mordechai and Negba Memorials 335
- 14.1 Ghetto Heroism and Israeli Valor 335
- 14.2 The Yad Mordechai Memorial 338
- 14.3 The Negba Memorial 349
- 15 Holocaust and Resurrection in Yigal Tumarkin's Memorial in Tel Aviv 358
- 15.1 Is It Possible to Render the Holocaust Visually? 359
- 15.2 The International Committee, Auschwitz 360
- 15.3 Israeli Holocaust Memorials at Yad Vashem 361
- 15.4 The Memorial to the Holocaust and the Resurrection of Israel 364
- 16 In Conclusion: Secularizing the Sacred, Israeli Art, and Jewish Orthodox Laws 373
- 16.1 The Hebrew Bible: a Spring Abundant with Narratives and Allegorical Figures 375
- 16.2 A Visual Discourse with Jewish Artists from the Past 380
- 16.3 Israeli "Graven Images" 382
- 16.4 Hybrids 382
- 16.5 Jewish Angels and Israeli Cherubs 384
- 16.6 Taharah and Tum'ah (Purity and Impurity) 389
- General Index 401