

Contents

Abbreviations	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: Intersecting Disability, Imprisonment, and Deinstitutionalization	1
1. The Perfect Storm: Origin Stories of Deinstitutionalization	37
2. Abolition in Deinstitutionalization: Normalization and the Myth of Mental Illness	69
3. Abolition as Knowledge and Ways of Unknowing	111
4. Why Prisons Are Not “the New Asylums”	135
5. Resistance to Inclusion and Community Living: NIMBY, Desegregation, and Race-ability	161
6. Political and Affective Economies of Closing Carceral Enclosures	189
7. Decarcerating through the Courts: Past, Present, and Future of Institutional and Prison Litigation	229
Epilogue: Abolition Now	269
Notes	285
Index	343