

Contents

The Contributors	vii
Introduction: The Dawn of Roman Law Paul J du Plessis and Sinclair W Bell	1
Part I The Materiality of Roman Law: New Archaeological Discoveries
1. Roman Law in its Italic Context James Clackson	9
2. Central Italian Elite Groups as Aristocratic Houses in the Ninth to Sixth Centuries BCE Matthew C Naglak and Nicola Terrenato	25
3. Authority and Display in Sixth-Century Etruria: The Vicchio Stele P Gregory Warden and Adriano Maggiani	41
Part II Constructing Early Roman Law: Sources and Methods
4. The Twelve Tables and the leges regiae : A Problem of Validity Carlos Felipe Amunátegui Perelló	57
5. The leges regiae in Livy: Narratological and Stylistic Strategies Marco Rocco	77
6. The leges regiae through Tradition, Historicity and Invention: A Comparison of Historico-literary and Jurisprudential Sources Rossella Laurendi	97
7. The Laws of the Kings – A View from a Distance Christopher Smith	111
8. Beyond the Pomerium : Expansion and Legislative Authority in Archaic Rome Jeremy Armstrong	133

Part III Roman Law in Historiography and Theory

9. Niebuhr and Bachofen: New Forms of Evidence on Roman History Luigi Capogrossi Colognesi	155
10. Finding Melanesia in Ancient Rome: Mauss' Anthropology of nexum Alain Pottage	171
Index	199