

Contents

Brief Introduction to Prison, State, and Violence Intersections	1
Maria João Guia and Sílvia Gomes
From Mass Incarceration to a Culture of Control	7
Julie Mestre Brancale and Thomas G. Blomberg
Class, Race, and Hyperincarceration in Revanchist America (Republication)	15
Loïc Wacquant
The Welfare Culture Crisis and the Socialising Intervention in Prison.	33
Anabela Miranda Rodrigues
Prison, Ethnicities and State: Establishing Theoretical and Empirical Connections	49
Sílvia Gomes
Prison in Spain and Social Exclusion Policies	71
Elisa García-España
The Perceptions of Foreign Organized Crime Groups Inside Portuguese Prisons: Cross-Problems on “First Capital Command PCC” Brazilian Leading Cases and Constructed Stereotypes	85
Maria João Guia and Renata Almeida da Costa
Contested Terrains and Incubators of Violence: Carceral Establishments in Democratic Brazil	99
Maria-Fátima Santos
Foreign National Women Arrested for Drug Trafficking: A Dynamic Socio-Penal Portrait	115
Raquel Matos, Manuela Ivone Cunha, and Joana Santos

Permeable Prison Walls: Social Relationships, Symbolic Violence and Reproduction of Inequalities 129
Rafaela Granja

The Evolution of Detaining Accompanied Migrant Minors Without a Residence Permit in Belgium 147
Lars Breuls and Steven De Ridder

Finding a Way Out of Prison: Portugal, A Collaborative Model 161
António Pedro Dores, Nuno Henrique Pontes, Arianna Silvestri, and Ricardo Loureiro