

Contents

	PREFACE	8
	INTRODUCTION	12
	Constructing a history of architecture's Renaissance	14
	Renaissance buildings and their Renaissance meanings	21
1	THE EARLY RENAISSANCE IN FLORENCE	26
	Vasari and the advent of the Renaissance	27
	The Brunelleschi conundrum	31
	The abandonment of Gothic	42
	Brunelleschi's buildings	51
	Brunelleschi's early legacy	80
	Giuliano da Sangallo and a new concept of architecture	86
	Giuliano da Sangallo's architectural orientation	102
2	THE HIGH RENAISSANCE IN ROME AND ITALY BEYOND	114
	Vasari and the question of the High Renaissance	115
	Bramante's new start	121
	Changing perspectives and final vision	127
	Raphael and a new creative method	159
	An agenda for Italy	176
	The architectural orders	188
	The legacy of High Renaissance Rome	191
3	MICHELANGELO AND HIS CONTEMPORARIES	208
	Vasari and Michelangelo's architecture	209
	Michelangelo's artistic grounding and introduction to architecture	213
	Florence and Michelangelo's early concerns	227
	Untrammelled Florentine architecture	236
	Florentine responses	256
	Rome and Michelangelo's return to architecture	260
	Final works	275
	Notes	298
	Bibliography	333
	Index	345
	Picture Credits	352