

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Victoria Durrer and Raphaela Henze
	Culture	3
	Management and Culture	5
	Rights	7
	Contents	9
	References	17
Part I	Conditions	23
2	Culture and International Development: Managing Participatory Voices and Value Chains in the Arts	25
	J. P. Singh
	Introduction	25
	Bringing Back Culture	27
	Human Well-Being and Cultural Voice	34
	A Value Chain Perspective	38
	Conclusion	43
	References	46

3	More Than Just Lost in Translation: The Ethnocentrism of Our Frames of Reference and the Underestimated Potential of Multilingualism	51
	Raphaela Henze
	Introduction	51
	Language Skills	52
	Methodology	57
	Conclusion	74
	References	76
4	Value as Fiction: An Anthropological Perspective	81
	Kayla Rush
	Introduction	81
	Value as Ethnographic Fiction	84
	The Cracked Art World	87
	Funding Applications as Tournaments of Value	89
	Conclusion: Some Implications for Arts and Cultural Management	91
	References	92
Part II	Practice	97
5	Affective Arrangements: Managing Czech Art, Marginality and Cultural Difference	99
	Maruška Svášek
	Theoretical Approach	101
	Expertise, Enthusiasm and Shared Aims	102
	Finding Political and Financial Support and Dealing with Unexpected Challenges	105
	Non-local Audiences and the Attraction of Český Krumlov	107
	The Launch: Art World Rituals as Affective Arrangements	109
	Conclusion	119
	References	123

6	The 'West' versus 'the Rest'? Festival Curators as Gatekeepers for Sociocultural Diversity	127
	Lisa Gaupp
	Introduction	127
	Curatorial Practice at International Performing Arts Festivals	131
	Curators as Gatekeepers	134
	Methodology	139
	Network Relations	140
	Sociocultural Conventions	144
	Conclusion	148
	References	149
7	Challenging Assumptions in Intercultural Collaborations: Perspectives from India and the UK	155
	Ruhi Jhunjhunwala and Amy Walker
	Funding Structures	156
	International Development	158
	Cultural Diplomacy	159
	Inherent Inequalities	160
	Cultural Stereotypes and Collective Identities	161
	Reflections from Practice	162
	Conclusion	166
	References	168
Part III	Education	171
8	A Call for Reflexivity: Implications of the Internationalisation Agenda for Arts Management Programmes Within Higher Education	173
	Victoria Durrer
	Arts and Cultural Management Education: A Global Landscape	176
	Arts and Cultural Management Education Content	182

The Politics of Teaching the Management of Art and Culture	184
Diversity in the Classroom	187
Internationalising Programme Content	189
Ethical Concerns	190
Taking a Critical and Self-Reflexive Approach to Teaching	193
Conclusion	194
References	196
9 Cultural Management Training Within Cultural Diplomacy Agendas in the MENA Region	205
Milena Dragičević-Šešić and Nina Mihaljinac
Introduction	205
Context and Methodological Framework	207
Research, Education and Cultural Policies: State of the Arts in the MENA Region	210
State of the Arts in Education and Continuous Professional Development	212
TAM and Their Impact: Conflictual Agendas?	216
Cultural Diplomacy (Bilateral) Programmes	217
International Developmental Aid—EU and EU Countries, UN, UNESCO	220
Assessment of International TAMs by Local Professionals and Trainers	222
Capacity-Building Programmes as a Soft Power Tool	224
Conclusion	227
References	228
10 ‘Silence is Golden’: Cultural Collision in the Classroom	233
Melissa Nisbett
Introduction	233
Methodology	235
Data, Analysis and Discussion	237
Conclusions	252
References	255

11 Intercultural Exchange: A Personal Perspective from the Outsider Inside	259
Hilary S. Carty
Introduction	259
Context	260
Reflective Approach/An Outsider on the Inside	261
Generating Conversations	263
Creating Genuine Exchange	264
Affirming the Environment for Learning	266
Conclusion	267
Part IV Future Directions	269
12 Navigating Between Arts Management and Cultural Agency: Latin America's Contribution to a New Approach for the Field	271
Javier J. Hernández-Acosta
Introduction	271
Arts Management	274
Cultural Agency	276
A Case Study: Cultural Agency in Puerto Rico	278
Cultural Agency through Creative and Artistic Practice	279
The Complementarity Between the Two Approaches	281
Cultural Entrepreneurship as a New Creative Force	284
An Integrated Approach	286
Conclusions	288
References	289
13 Managing Cultural Rights: The Project of the 2017 Taiwan National Cultural Congress and Culture White Paper	293
Shu-Shiun Ku and Jerry C. Y. Liu
Introduction	293
Context	295

Reflective Approach	309
Discussion	310
Conclusion	313
References	315
14 Rethinking Cultural Relations and Exchange in the Critical Zone	319
Carla Figueira and Aimee Fullman
Introduction	319
The Critical Zone	320
Rethinking Cultural Relations and Exchange: Critical Contributions to Solving the Ecological Crisis	322
International Relations, Societal Change and the Ecological Crisis	326
Cultural Policy, Societal Change and the Ecological Crisis	327
Cultural Engagement as a Leverage Point Intervention	331
Undisciplined Food for Thought	335
References	336
Index	341