

Contents

List of figures	xiii
List of tables	xiv
List of contributors	xvi
Preface	xxviii
Acknowledgements	xxix
List of abbreviations	xxx

Introduction: the Asian century and Asian sport Fan Hong and Lu Zhouxiang	1
---	---

PART I

Asia's traditional sport 9

1 In authentic relations: traditional Asian martial arts, East and West Paul Bowman	11
2 Chinese philosophy and Asian martial arts Barry Allen	20
3 A brief history of Chinese martial arts Lu Zhouxiang	28
4 The development and global transmission of Wing Chun Benjamin N. Judkins	36
5 The transmission modes of taijiquan: traditional martial art, competitive sport and the political reappropriation of culture in modern China Pierrick Porchet	45
6 The long-term development of Japanese martial arts Raúl Sánchez García	54

Contents

7	Kendō: an indigenous culture embodying national narratives in Japan Yasuhiro Sakaue	64
8	Judo Mike Callan	75
9	In search of a tradition for taekwondo Udo Moenig and Minho Kim	83
10	Chinlone: national sport of Myanmar Maitrii Aung-Thwin	96
PART II
The rise of modern sport and the Olympic Movement in Asia		105
11	The foundation and early years of the Olympic Council of Asia: a controversial body making controversial politics Jörg Krieger	107
12	China and the Olympic Games Fan Hong and Zhong Yuting	118
13	The rise of modern sport and the Olympic Movement in India Souvik Naha	126
14	The rise of modern sport and the Olympic Movement in Japan Yasuhiro Sakaue and Lee Thompson	135
15	Beyond the Peninsula: sport and the Olympic Games in colonial Korea (1910–1945) Seok Lee	149
16	The rise of modern sport and the Olympic Movement in Korea Gwang Ok and Ka-Ram Lee	159
17	The introduction and institutionalisation of Western sport in colonial and postcolonial Malaya, 1786–1965 Peng Ham Lim	169
18	Sport, colonisation and modernity in the Philippines Gerald R. Gems	180

19	The rise of modern sport in colonial Singapore: the Singapore Cricket Club leads the way Nick Aplin	190
PART III
	Sport policy and practice: public and private provision	207
20	International sport events and the two Koreas: politics, policies and practice Udo Merkel	209
21	Sport diplomacy at the 2018 Winter Olympics in PyeongChang: the relations between North and South Korea Jung Woo Lee	227
22	Commercialisation of sport in China Ma Yang and Zheng Jinming	238
23	The reform of China's elite sport system: case studies on football and table tennis Huang Gangqiang and Lu Zhouxiang	247
24	The development of sport policy and practice in Taiwan Ko Ling-Mei and Lee Ping-Chao	256
25	Politics and policy of forging post-handover Hong Kong as sporting mega-event centre Marcus P. Chu	271
26	An overview of sport in modern India Packianathan Chelladurai and Swarali Patil	279
27	Indonesia's sport policy and development in the Old Order Era (1945–1967) and New Order Era (1967–1998) Amung Ma'mun	289
PART IV
	Social stratification and diversity in Asian sport	303
28	Safeguarding children in sport in Asia Daniel J. A. Rhind and Katsumi Mori	305

Contents

29	Sport and ethnicity Bonnie Pang and Rohini Balram	314
30	South Korea: women and sport in a persistent patriarchy Guy Podoler	324
31	Disability sport in Malaysia: challenges and opportunities Selina Khoo	336
32	Sport and gender in contemporary China Xiong Huan	345
33	The changing society, state policies and sport for young children in twenty-first-century China Zhong Yijing and Dong Jinxia	357
34	The development of elite disability sport in China Guan Zhixun	366
35	Sport and social class in Japan: past and present Koji Kobayashi and Hitoshi Ebishima	377
36	Sport and gender in Japan Osamu Takamine	386
37	Sport and ethnicity in Indonesia: developing national character through traditional games Toho Cholik Mutohir and Muchamad Arif Al Ardha	393
38	Yoga for oppositional defiant disorder and adolescent relationship issues Prasanna Balaji	404
PART V
Sport in West Asia and the Middle East		417
39	Sport and diplomacy in the Middle East Andrea L. Stanton	419
40	Sport and international relations in the Arab world Bakeel Al Zandani and Youcef Bouandel	429
41	Arab countries' strategies to bid and to host major sport events Wadih Ishac	437

42	The emergence and development of the Islamic Solidarity Games Abdul Rahim Al Droushi	447
43	Soccer: moulding the Middle East and North Africa James M. Dorsey	456
44	Playing ball: crowd and 'contra-crowd' in the politics of Egyptian and Tunisian football Larbi Sadiki and Layla Saleh	473
PART VI
Asian mega sporting events		491
45	The Asian Games, Asian sport and Asian politics Fan Hong and Gong He	493
46	The Far Eastern Championship Games Wang Yan	505
47	The games of the new emerging forces Friederike Trotier	509
48	Borrowed spectacle: Olympic rhetoric in political battles Jessamyn R. Abel	515
49	The Southeast Asian Games Simon Creak	522
50	The Asian Indoor Games Feng Jing	528
51	The political dimension of the AFC Asian Cup Jörg Krieger	533
52	The 2008 Beijing Olympic Games Min Ge	538
53	The 1988 Seoul Olympic Games and South Korea's mega-events Jihyun Cho	545
54	Wushu competitions in Asia Shen Liang	551

PART VII

Asia's sport heroes and heroines	557
55 Liu Changchun: China's first Olympic athlete Zhang Ling	559
56 Rudy Hartono: an Indonesian badminton legend Toho Cholik Mutohir and Awang Firmansyah	563
57 Dipa Karmakar: rising star of India Usha S. Nair	572
58 Bruce Lee: his Jeet Kune Do, his movies and his legacy Liu Yinya	575
59 Yao Ming: the basketball giant Huang Fuhua	579
60 Eric Liddell: the flying Scotsman Zhang Huijie	583
61 Seri Pak: Korea's Golf Empress Gwang Ok and Kyoungho Park	589
62 Dhyan Chand Singh: a legend in hockey Usha S. Nair	593
63 He Zhenliang: China's Mr Olympics Zhang Jie	596
Index	603