

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Preface	ix

I

1 Chhanda Rāu and Jaitasī Rau – an evaluation	1
2 Kānhaḍade Prabandha	13
3 Rāmavilāsa Kāvyaṃ	32
4 Jauhar in Rajasthan's Historical Kāvyaṃ and some other works	43
5 A Note on Sawai Jaisingh Charita	61
6 Conquest of Gujarat by the Turks as depicted in some Persian and a non-Persian Sources	73
7 Muhta Nainsi's Khyāt and Vigat – an appraisal	93
8 Kavirāja Bānkīdas rī Khyāt	108
9 The Impact of Akbar's Religious Policy as reflected in the literary works of Rajasthan	123

II

10 The date and site of Aśvamedha performed by Sawai Jai Singh	137
11 Historical background and significance of the Aśvmedha performed by Sawai Jai Singh	144
12 Attempts to Vivify and Reassert Vedic and Śāstrīya Traditions through open debate in the 18 th century	154
13 The Role of the Rajput Princes of Rajputana in	169

	Protecting Hindu Religion, Culture and Literary Heritage (1200-1743 A.D.)
14	Mārwar's Nāthān rā Āsaṇa rī Bahī (Nātha Āsans in India, (c. 1725 A.D.))	195
15	Jizya and the Rajput Princes	225
16	A Brief account of the Destruction of Temples by Aurangzeb, with special reference to the Temples in Rajputana	246
III
17	Archival Records of the Jaipur State	280
18	The Records of the Rajasthan Archives and Social History	302
19	Maps and Plans of Ayodhyā in the Kapad Dwara, Jaipur	311
IV
20	The Secret understanding between Ghāzi-ud-dīn Khān Fīrūz Jang and Mahārājā Ajit Singh (June-July 1709)	324
21	An Important Letter of Sawai Jai Singh to Chhatrapati Shahu	332
22	A Brief Study of the troubled Relations between Sawai Jai Singh and Maharaja Ajit Singh (1700-1724)	337
23	Sawai Jai Singh and the Sayyid Brothers, the King Makers	354
24	Creation of the First Jat State	376
25	Attempts of the Rajput States to check Maratha advance in the North and Peshwa Baji Rao's visit to Rajputana	392