

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations.....	vii
Colour Plates.....	xii
Acknowledgements.....	xxiii
Abbreviations.....	xxiv
Timeline.....	xxiv
Introduction.....	1

Part I. Iconic Landscape, Iconic Map

Chapter 1. Formation of a Holy Land.....	9
Chapter 2. Madaba Map: A Visual Portrait of the Holy Land from the Byzantine Period.....	13

Part II. The Map of the Holy Land in the Latin Christian West

Chapter 3. Innovative Western Spiritual Iconographies.....	33
Chapter 4. Fifteenth-Century Pilgrims' Maps: Late Medieval Instruments of Devotion.....	63

Part III. Between Pilgrimage and Scripture, Catholicism and Protestantism

Chapter 5. Friedrich III's Cartographical Pilgrimage Imagery.....	87
Chapter 6. Map and Scripture.....	95

Part IV. Map as Icon: Greek Orthodox proskynetaria
from the Ottoman Period

Chapter 7. Icon of a Land.....	123
Conclusion.....	133

Appendices

Appendix I. Inscriptions on the Madaba Map.....	137
Appendix II. Sites Mentioned in the Pilgrimage Guide Gesta Francorum Iherusalem expugnatium	141
Appendix III. Inscriptions on Three Twelfth-Century Maps of the Holy Land.....	143
Appendix IV. Inscriptions on London, British Library, MS Add. 27376, fols 188 ^v –189 ^r	151
Appendix V. A List of Places in William Wey's Pilgrimage Account.....	155
Appendix VI. Sites in and around Jerusalem in Bernhard von Breydenbach's Map of the Holy Land.....	161
Bibliography.....	163
Index of Maps/Map-Based Imagery of the Holy Land.....	173
Index of Places.....	174
General Index.....	175