

Contents

Contributors	v
Acknowledgements	vii
Preface	ix
Emanuele E. Intagliata, Simon J. Barker, and Christopher Courault
1. Approaching late antique city walls with an empire-wide perspective	1
Emanuele E. Intagliata, Christopher Courault, and Simon J. Barker
Section A. Regional trends
2. Late Roman city walls in Hispania : a reappraisal	11
Carmen Fernández-Ochoa and Angel Morillo
3. The city walls of Lusitania revisited: a current perspective	21
Adriaan De Man
4. Urban defences in late Roman Gaul: civic monuments or state installations	27
Simon Esmonde Cleary
5. The late Roman city walls in southern Gaul	51
Marc Heijmans
Section B. City walls in old and new capitals
6. Power and glory: ceremonial gates in Constantinople and the Balkans: prototypes and legacy	65
James Crow
7. An exceptional city wall? Re-thinking the fortifications of Nicaea in an empire-wide context	77
Ayşe Dalyancı-Berns
8. Defending a new capital: Ravenna, Classe, and the revival of the construction industry in late antiquity	87
J. Riley Snyder
Section C. Case studies: West and East
9. Dismantling, re-carving, and re-using: some observations about the late antique city wall of Agedincum	101
Pierre-Antoine Lamy and Mathieu Ribolet
10. A statement on the late antique city walls of Córdoba	109
Christopher Courault
11. The wall circuit of Segni in late antiquity: urban and topographic issues	117
Francesco Maria Cifarelli and Federica Colaiacomo
12. The revivification of earthen outworks in the late Eastern Empire: the case study of Resafa, Syria	125
Catharine Hof

13. The fortifications of Zenobia reinterpreted 137
Sylvie Blétry
- Section D. The afterlife of city walls
14. Disuse, re-use, and misuse of the early Byzantine fortress at Isthmia 147
Jon M. Frey
15. Popes, senators, barons, and popes again: the Aurelian Wall from the twelfth to the fifteenth centuries 157
Hendrik Dey